CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamster Union was convicted today on two charges of seeking to fix the jury which tried him on a conspiracy charge in 1962.

The jury acquitted him on a third charge.

Also convicted were three men on trial with him — Ewing King and Thomas E. Parks of Nashville and Larry Campbell of Detroit.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Jurors returned today to their work of sifting through six weeks of testimony to determine if James R. Hoffa tried to rig another federal court jury.

The Teamsters president says their verdict will determine his future as a labor leader.

After deliberating 2 hours and 50 minutes, the jurors went out for lunch at noon without any indication a verdict is in sight.

The four women and eight men deliberated 2 hours and 35 minutes Tuesday night before U.S. Dist. Judge Frank Wilson sent them to bed at 10 p.m.

Hal W. Bullen, 69, a retired sales executive, was elected jury foreman.

The jurors are considering six weeks of testimony on government charges that Hoffa, president of the International Teamsters Union, aided and abetted five other men on trial with him in trying to fix the 1962 jury which tried him on a conspiracy charge in Nashville.

Louisville Hears Cassius Flunks Army Mental Test

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Defense Department has declined comment on reports that Cassius Clay, new heavyweight boxing champion, flunked the Army's mental examination, the Courier-Journal said today.

The newspaper, in a story from Washington, said the department was asked about reports the 22-year-old Louisville resident failed by a small margin to pass his psychological tests.

A pre-induction examination was given Clay on Jan. 24 in Coral Gables, Fla.

The Courier-Journal said it is presumed another mental test will be given Clay soon.

The Defense Department said the final word on whether Clay is eligible for induction will be sent to his draft board in Louisville.

U.N. Council OKs Cyprus Peace Force

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. Security Council voted unanimously today to have Secretary-General U Thant set up a Cyprus peace force and name a mediator to seek peace in the island republic.

The Soviet Union had announced it would support the plan despite strong reservations on the provisions for the creation and control of the force.

There also had been some doubt about France's vote, but French Delegate Roger Seydoux went along with the others.

Russia objected to a provision that the secretary-general would decide on the composition of the proposed force in consultation with Cyprus, Britain, Greece and Turkey. This would circumvent the Security Council, said Soviet Ambassador Nikolai Fedorenko.

In Athens, 2,000 Greeks burned an effigy of President Johnson in front of the U.S. Embassy Tuesday night. Thousands of others poured through the streets shouting denunciations of the United States and Britain for allegedly taking Turkey's side in the dispute.

They roared "Bravo Russia," "Johnson-Al Capone" and "Out with the fleet." Units of the U.S. 6th Fleet are holding joint exercises with Turkey in the Aegean Sea.

On the Greek island of Rhodes, off the Turkish coast, 3,000 high school students stoned the U. S. Information Agency building, the Turkish consulate and the U.S. Coast Guard vessel Courier, which serves as a transmitter for the Voice of America. They also overturned a car belonging to the Courier at dockside.

The students hooted down a government official who pleaded, "The Americans are our friends." Fights broke out when police moved in to quell the disorders.

Greek Premier George Papandreu ordered police not to interfere with the demonstrations but said he wanted all foreign embassies and property protected from "every act of violence and violence."

"I am proud of the reports of Greek youth and the Greek people in general making patriotic demonstrations for Cyprus," Papandreu said.

Secretary-General U Thant appeared confident the Security Council would approve the compromise plan authorizing him to set up an international peace force for Cyprus and to appoint a mediator to seek a solution in the constitutional strife between the island's Greek and Turkish communities.

Paddling Teacher Is in Dutch Again

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP) — School Supt. Robert Gower faces charges again in the paddling of a Goshen schoolboy.

Mrs. Betty Hedger filed an assault and battery charge against Gower Tuesday, saying he paddled her 9-year-old son, Danny, Jan. 22 and "beat the seat of the boy's pants."

Gower's attorney said Gower paddled the youngster after he refused to heed warnings about misbehavior.

A year ago, Gower was convicted of assault in another paddling case, but the jury acquitted him on charges of torturing and assault and battery. He was fined $1.

Power Failure Occurs Here

Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co. workers were attempting to find a cause for a power failure at noon today.

Loss of electric power on the north commercial circuit of Circleville occurred at about noon today leaving many homes and businesses without power for about 15 minutes.

A spokesman for the utility company said the power failure and restored service were of an unknown origin.

At least twice before the 15-minute failure, power was interrupted momentarily.

Tax Cut To Be Felt This Week

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal tax cut benefits will show up in paychecks of millions of Americans starting Thursday.

But the extra money gushing into the nation's spending stream—or savings institutions—probably won't total the $800 million a month estimated by some tax cut backers.

A cross-country Associated Press survey showed a scattering of employees, mostly salaried, had asked that benefits be stored up for them.

Most workers apparently looked forward with relief to a reduction in taxes withheld.

"I want every nickel I can get my hands on to pay my bills," said a Cleveland employee of the Internal Revenue Service.

Employers reported few hitches in adjusting payroll procedures, especially concerns with automated bookkeeping. Basically, they hereafter will withhold 14 per cent of earnings instead of 18 per cent.

"We just changed a few wires in the machine and that was it," said Manley Eubank in Raleigh, N.C. Eubank's Central Data Processing unit runs off paychecks for 10,000 North Carolina state employees.

The $11.5-billion tax cut, largest in U.S. history, provides reductions averaging 19 per cent for 80 million citizens.

"No trouble at all" or "it took only a couple of minutes" were common reports from employers, including such giants as General Motors Corp. with 640,000 employees. In Salt Lake City, Mountain States Telephone Co. said it was "working frantically" to adjust its equipment. H. J. Heinz Co., with 7,000 employees, said at headquarters in Pittsburgh that its payroll staff was putting in extra work.

In cases such as these, the rub seemed to be in meeting employee requests for some treatment other than reduction in taxes withheld.

Jet Secret Is Well-Kept

Few Solons Knew About New A-11

WASHINGTON (AP) — Development of the A-11, the new 2,000-mile-an-hour jet plane, was so secret that only a few members of Congress knew about it.

This indicates the plane was developed with Central Intelligence Agency funds rather than the Defense Department's. While a number of congressional committees are privy to the Pentagon's activities, only a few senators and representatives are on the committee overseeing the CIA.

It means that the House, in recent debate on defense spending, did not have full information at hand when it overruled Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and approved an extra $40 million for research on an improved manned interceptor plane.

Existence of the plane was announced by President Johnson at his news conference Saturday. He said the planes, which can operate at higher than 70,000 feet, were being tested "to determine their capabilities as long-range interceptors."

Johnson noted that several key Congress members had been informed about the plane's development.

One member of the House, who knew about the A-11 for many months, described its development as the best kept American secret since development of the atomic bomb in World War II.

In the House Armed Services Committee, for example, only a few members are believed to have known about the plane's secret development.

An informed source said that these few were informed because they have a special assignment that allows them to receive such information.

Tom Seeley of Monroe Twp. Bob Bowsher Trophy Winner

By STEVE JONES

Tom Seeley, Monroe High School's high scoring guard, has been picked by the Pickaway County basketball coaches for the Bob Bowsher Award.

The rotating trophy, presented annually by The Herald, goes to the county high school basketball player selected by coaches for his overall ability and for conduct on and off the playing floor.

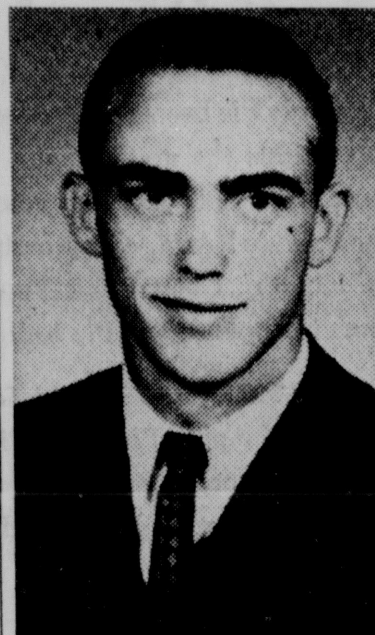

"Tom has what it takes to make a great athlete," coach Dick Everman says of this year's Bowsher winner. "His greatest asset is his desire to win."

"At times this year the attitude of the rest of the team was not the best, but Tom never quit trying," Everman continued.

ACCORDING to Everman, Seeley likes to play defense just as well as he does offense, and hustles "all the way."

He was the leading scorer on the Monroe team, finishing the season with an 18.8 average per game. He twice hit 27 points for his season high.

His scoring average was one

of the most improved in the county. Last year as a varsity starter he tallied 142 points in 17 games for an average of 8.4 per tilt.

As much as Seeley likes to play basketball, his coach says his greatest love is probably baseball.

The youthful slugger paced the Monroe baseball team to the Pickaway County championship last year, batting .513 for the season. He hit three home runs, had three triples and blasted six doubles. He played catcher.

His future plans include a college education. Right now he wants to follow in the footsteps of his father, Amos Seeley, teacher and principal at Monroe High School.

TOM is a member of the Monroe annual staff and was president of the junior class last year. He is a 4-H Club member.

He is an above average student as well as an exceptional athlete, maintaining a 3-point average in school. He is a member of the Monroe and Pickaway County chapters of the National Honor Society.

Seeley has twice been named to the All-County basketball team. He was a unanimous choice this year. He also was on the All-County baseball team last spring.

He began high school at Green Twp. in Scioto County where his father was executive head. The Seeley's moved

Steps Are Taken To Provide Water At City View Area

Initial legislation to provide water for the City View Addition at the northern fringe of Circleville was approved last night by City Council.

An ordinance authorizing the Board of Public Utilities to contract for preparation of plans and specifications gained the solons' nod on a 7-0 vote. This phase of the project will be done by the Burgess & Niple engineering firm of Columbus.

The plan calls for extension of city water mains to the subdivision as required and the installation of fire hydrants and other necessary facilities.

Ervin Leist, director of public utilities, said that 35 of 50 lot owners in the City View area have petitioned for the water service. The project will be paid for by the owners on a front footage basis.

LEIST said about one mile of pipe will be required. The area to be serviced includes several business establishments. No report was submitted on approximate cost of the job.

In other legislative action, Council passed three ordinances relative to the street construction, maintenance and repair functions of the City Service Department.

One of the measures authorized the service director to advertise for bids for furnishing certain materials for 1964. Bids are to be submitted on a per unit basis which will allow for separate purchase contracts if so desired.

The lawmakers' next step was to approve the appropriation of $14,500 for the first quarter purchase of the street materials. The quarterly allowance of funds was ordered in previous action by Council.

The third ordinance involving street operations calls for the appropriation of $1,700 for the payment of employee salaries.

Another ordinance gaining passage authorized the service director to advertise for bids for the purchase of a new 1½ ton dump truck. The measure specifies that bidders take into consideration the trade-in allowance for a 1950 model dump truck of the same size.

PASSING on to other items on clerk Robert Shadley's agenda, the solons confirmed Mayor Ben Gordon's reappointment of J. Ludwig Haeker as a member of the Park Board. His term will extend for three years.

Castro Says U.S. Can Have Water Now

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro said early today he is ready to supply the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay with water once again.

"Cuba considers the incident of the water at Guantanamo Bay closed and is ready to supply the base with water once again," the prime minister told foreign newsmen at a Moroccan Embassy reception.

"It is up to the Americans to use that water or not," he added.

Castro cut off Guantanamo's water supply on Feb. 6 in retaliation for the arrest of 38 Cuban fishermen and the seizure of four trawlers in American waters off Florida.

Twenty-nine of the fishermen were returned to Cuba Feb. 21 with their boats after the four captains paid fines for poaching. Two fishermen chose asylum in the United States. The other seven were freed as juveniles and returned to Havana.

The U.S. government is not expected to take up Castro's offer to turn the base's water back on. It has plans to make the base self-sufficient with the use of desalinization plants that are to be built in the next year. The base is being supplied by tankers with water from Florida.

Family Plagued By Medical Ills

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP) — Pearl Beeson saw her daughter, Mrs. Charles Shaw, being assigned to the other bed in her Lincoln Park Hospital room.

Both were hospitalized for treatment of circulatory ailments. Down the hall Mrs. Beeson's grandson, Charles Mills 6, was bedded with rheumatic fever.

When Charles' mother got home from taking Mrs. Beeson to the hospital, she found Charles Shaw—her father—had fallen down the stairs and broken some ribs.

He stayed home to recuperate.

Paris Policy Stumps U.S.

Long Strain Seen In French Dealing

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials have about given up trying to analyze the motives of French President Charles de Gaulle and resigned themselves to a long period of strain and increasing tension in relations between Washington and Paris.

The latest French maneuver in demanding Red Chinese admission to the U.N. World Health Organization is but one of a series which has already created a bad split in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and which may be followed by other moves as yet unforeseen here.

The Washington policy for dealing with this situation seems to be essentially a policy of containment aimed at trying to prevent the split in the alliance from becoming worse.

It is also aimed at trying to blot the thrust of De Gaulle's diplomacy insofar as it may affect the policies and attitudes of other countries in issues like the recognition of the Communist regime in China.

After news was received at the White House and State Department Tuesday that France was supporting a Red Chinese seat in the World Health Organization, the State Department declared that the U.S. delegation had "actively and successfully opposed the challenge of the Republic of China's (Nationalist China's) credentials."

It added: "We will continue to do this in every U.N. body."

The acceptance of the French challenge on this issue, which points toward a fight in the U.N. General Assembly over Red China next fall, was unqualified.

It is understood that the State Department is advising its embassies all over the world to make the U.S. policy on Red China both as to recognition and as to U.N. membership completely clear in the capitals where they serve.

RFK Is Mum On Politics

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy is "staying loose" in the face of persistent reports that he is a leading contender for the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

He has not taken himself out of the picture.

But he solemnly, and to all comers, refused to indulge in speculation about any possibility President Johnson will ask him to join him on the ticket.

He is seemingly unconcerned or amused by speculative pieces in the press that he not only would accept the nomination but is actively seeking it by his increasing public appearances.

"If I stayed away from the public they'd say I was sulking in my office," he told a reporter.

Jury Hears Secretary as First Witness

DALLAS (AP) — A pretty secretary testified today that Jack Ruby sat with a fixed stare for two minutes shortly after the news broke that President John F. Kennedy had been assassinated in Dallas.

The witness, Georgia Mayor, said in answer to defense questions that his appearance and action were remarkable and sufficiently unusual to draw her attention.

She is a secretary in the advertising department of the Dallas Morning News. Co-workers said they noted very little, if any, change in Ruby when he heard the news. He was in the office composing an advertisement.

Ruby is charged with slaying Lee Harvey Oswald, accused as the assassin of Kennedy. The defense sought to support by questioning its contention that the slaying of the President shocked Ruby into a mental blackout during which he killed Oswald.

The state seeks to prove that Ruby's actions were normal.

Ruby rose to his feet before a jury of four women and eight men today and entered a formal plea of innocent as the first day of testimony got under way. His attorneys added that the plea was innocent by reason of insanity.

Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade, facing the 52-year-old defendant, then read the indictment charging that Ruby did "with malice aforethought kill Lee Harvey Oswald by shooting him with a gun."

The indictment was dated Nov. 26, two days after Oswald was shot and four days after Kennedy was assassinated during a motorcade in downtown Dallas.

Defense counsel told Judge Joe B. Brown that the defendant was pleading innocent by reason of insanity.

Judge Brown was absent Tuesday with a cold and Judge J. Frank Wilson sat for him while the jury was completed.

Meanwhile, the Texas Supreme Court refused for the second time to hear arguments on the legal issue of whether television views who saw Ruby shoot Oswald are witnesses and thus ineligible to serve on the jury. Eleven of the 12 jurors said they saw the shooting on TV.

The return of Judge Brown to the case appeared to be a first in Texas. Legal authorities in the capital in Austin and Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade said they know of no previous case in which a judge has been replaced in a trial and then returned to preside over it.

"I feel better," Brown said as he walked through a crowd of reporters and photographers outside the courtroom.

The courtroom had a tenser air today than it has since the Jurors returned today to their work of sifting through six weeks of testimony to determine if James R. Hoffa tried to rig another federal court jury.

The Teamsters president says their verdict will determine his future as a labor leader.

The four women and eight men deliberated 2 hours and 35 minutes Tuesday night before U.S. Dist. Judge Frank Wilson sent them to bed at 10 p.m.

Hal W. Bullen, 69, a retired sales executive, was elected jury foreman.

The jurors are considering six weeks of testimony on government charges that Hoffa, president of the International Teamsters Union, aided and abetted five other men on trial with him in trying to fix the 1962 jury which tried him on a conspiracy charge in Nashville.

The Nashville jury, from which three jurors or prospective jurors were excused on grounds that someone tried to contact them, never was able to agree.

The judge instructed the jurors Tuesday that Hoffa cannot be convicted unless at least one of the others also is found guilty. A man cannot legally be held responsible for helping someone who did nothing wrong, he said.

Judge Wilson also said, "It is not necessary for the government to show that an attempt (to contact a juror) was successful or that an approach actually was made." It is sufficient, he said, if the jury believes the government proved an attempt was made.

Conviction could mean up to 15 years in prison and $15,000 in fines for Hoffa. For the others, it could mean up to 5 years and $5,000 each.

"It is up to the Americans to use that water or not," he added.

Castro cut off Guantanamo's water supply on Feb. 6 in retaliation for the arrest of 38 Cuban fishermen and the seizure of four trawlers in American waters off Florida.

Twenty-nine of the fishermen were returned to Cuba Feb. 21 with their boats after the four captains paid fines for poaching. Two fishermen chose asylum in the United States. The other seven were freed as juveniles and returned to Havana.

The U.S. government is not expected to take up Castro's offer to turn the base's water back on. It has plans to make the base self-sufficient with the use of desalination plants that are to be built in the next year. The base is being supplied by tankers with water from Florida.

Family Plagued By Medical Ills

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP) — Pearl Beeson saw her daughter, Mrs. Charles Shaw, being assigned to the other bed in her Lincoln Park Hospital room.

Both were hospitalized for treatment of circulatory ailments. Down the hall Mrs. Beeson's grandson, Charles Mills 6, was bedded with rheumatic fever.

When Charles' mother got home from taking Mrs. Beeson to the hospital, she found Charles Shaw—her father—had fallen down the stairs and broken some ribs.

He stayed home to recuperate.

Paris Policy Stumps U.S.

Long Strain Seen In French Dealing

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials have about given up trying to analyze the motives of French President Charles de Gaulle and resigned themselves to a long period of strain and increasing tension in relations between Washington and Paris.

The latest French maneuver in demanding Red Chinese admission to the U.N. World Health Organization is but one of a series which has already created a bad split in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and which may be followed by other moves as yet unforeseen here.

The Washington policy for dealing with this situation seems to be essentially a policy of containment aimed at trying to prevent the split in the alliance from becoming worse.

It is also aimed at trying to blot the thrust of De Gaulle's diplomacy insofar as it may affect the policies and attitudes of other countries in issues like the recognition of the Communist regime in China.

After news was received at the White House and State Department Tuesday that France was supporting a Red Chinese seat in the World Health Organization, the State Department declared that the U.S. delegation had "actively and successfully opposed the challenge of the Republic of China's (Nationalist China's) credentials."

It added: "We will continue to do this in every U.N. body." The acceptance of the French challenge on this issue, which points toward a fight in the U.N. General Assembly over Red China next fall, was unqualified.

It is understood that the State Department is advising its embassies all over the world to make the U.S. policy on Red China both as to recognition and as to U.N. membership completely clear in the capitals where they serve.

RFK Is Mum On Politics

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy is "staying loose" in the face of persistent reports that he is a leading contender for the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

He has not taken himself out of the picture. But he solemnly, and to all comers, refused to indulge in speculation about any possibility President Johnson will ask him to join him on the ticket.

He is seemingly unconcerned or amused by speculative pieces in the press that he not only would accept the nomination but is actively seeking it by his increasing public appearances.

"If I stayed away from the public they'd say I was sulking in my office," he told a reporter.

Jury Hears Secretary as First Witness

DALLAS (AP)—A pretty secretary testified today that Jack Ruby sat with a fixed stare for two minutes shortly after the news broke that President John F. Kennedy had been assassinated in Dallas.

The witness, Georgia Mayor, said in answer to defense questions that his appearance and action were remarkable and sufficiently unusual to draw her attention.

She is a secretary in the advertising department of the Dallas Morning News. Co-workers said they noted very little, if any, change in Ruby when he heard the news. He was in the office composing an advertisement.

Ruby is charged with slaying Lee Harvey Oswald, accused as the assassin of Kennedy. The defense sought to support by questioning its contention that the slaying of the President shocked Ruby into a mental blackout during which he killed Oswald.

The state seeks to prove that Ruby's actions were normal. Ruby rose to his feet before a jury of four women and eight men today and entered a formal plea of innocent as the first day of testimony got under way. His attorneys added that the plea was innocent by reason of insanity.

Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade, facing the 52-year-old defendant, then read the indictment charging that Ruby did "with malice aforethought kill Lee Harvey Oswald by shooting him with a gun."

The indictment was dated Nov. 26, two days after Oswald was shot and four days after Kennedy was assassinated during a motorcade in downtown Dallas.

Defense counsel told Judge Joe B. Brown that the defendant was pleading innocent by reason of insanity.

Judge Brown was absent Tuesday with a cold and Judge J. Frank Wilson sat for him while the jury was completed. Meanwhile, the Texas Supreme Court refused for the second time to hear arguments on the legal issue of whether television views who saw Ruby shoot Oswald are witnesses and thus ineligible to serve on the jury. Eleven of the 12 jurors said they saw the shooting on TV.

The return of Judge Brown to the case appeared to be a first in Texas. Legal authorities in the capital in Austin and Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade said they know of no previous case in which a judge has been replaced in a trial and then returned to preside over it.

"I feel better," Brown said as he walked through a crowd of reporters and photographers outside the courtroom.

The courtroom had a tenser air today than it has since the

The local school bond issue will be the program subject when Circleville Rotary meets Thursday for a regular noon luncheon session.

Directing the program will be Robert Brehmer Jr., president of the Circleville Board of Education. The bond issue, calling for a new high school and other city educational system improvements, will be up for vote at the May primary.

The program will be conducted at the St. Philip's Church Parish House.

Salary Hike for Meter Man Leads to Debate on Parking

Approval of a salary increase for Circleville's parking meter maintenance man touched off a long debate in City Council last night on the merits of local parking meters.

The increase, granted to meter man Nolan Dunkle, amounts to about $25 per month. His salary will be raised from $3,000 to $3,300 per year.

Councilman Keith Wagner, asking for a comparison on meter revenue income and expenses, was told that the parking devices produced about $16,000 last year. The cost of operating them, including maintenance, replacement and salaries, amounted to about $9,000.

Police Chief Robert Temple said Dunkle, who works about 48 hours per week, is entitled to a living wage. The chief also defended the need for meters, labeling them as definite traffic control devices.

COUNCIL, as it has in the past, voiced a mixed reaction opinion toward need for the meters. Some claimed they are necessary, while other said the city probably could get along better without them.

Councilmen John Jenkins of the safety committee said there is no immediate solution or answer to the parking meter problem.

Mayor Ben Gordon suggested a study concerning placement of meters on streets near the shopping area that do not have the devices at present. He directed his comments toward drivers who now park their cars all day at the meter free areas. He said the shopping picture possibly could be improved by pushing the free curb space farther away from the downtown vicinity.

The solons, concluding their long deliberation on the meter situation, approved Dunkle's salary hike by a 7-0 vote.

trial began Feb. 17. Ruby shot Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy, with a snub-nosed .38-caliber pistol in the basement of the Dallas City Hall Nov. 24.

Chief defense counsel Melvin M. Belli of San Francisco has indicated Ruby will plead temporary insanity. He will argue Ruby went into an emotional blackout, induced by shock over the president's death, and did not know the nature or consequences of his act.

The trial began Feb. 17 and developed into a marathon of questioning prospective jurors.

Tuesday, with Judge Wilson holding a tight rein on the proceedings, the 11th and 12th jurors were chosen, completing the panel.

To find the 12 jurors, 162 persons were examined. Most were excused when they said they opposed the death penalty, or had fixed opinions about Ruby's guilt or innocence.

The last two accepted as jurors were Aileen Shields, 57, a divorcee since 1934, who works for the telephone company, and Louise Malone, 58, a white-haired widow. She is an accountant for an oil company. They are the oldest members of the panel.

Two other women were accepted earlier for the jury.

All 12 jurors are white Protestants. All but two have children. The youngest, Luther E. Dickerson, vice president of a chemical company, is 27. The jury's average age is 39.9 years.

Disposal Plant Legislation On Obtaining Land Tabled

Preliminary legislation leading to the future construction of a new Circleville sewage plant hit a snag Tuesday night when Council tabled a resolution that would declare the city's intention of obtaining necessary land for the project.

The resolution of intention represents the city's first step in acquiring the land through condemnation procedures. However, Council indicated, by way of its negative vote, that it wants more time to study the matter.

The solons reflected the opinion that three new councilmen serving this term desire to become more familiar with the disposal plant project. The land, considered most feasible as a site, is the Marfield tract south of Circleville. But the property currently is entailed in an estate.

Lengthy deliberation followed after Councilman David Crawford asked how binding last night's resolution would be on Council's final decision on construction of a new disposal facility. Solon Boyd Horn added to the debate by saying he still favors expansion of the old plant rather than a new facility.

"burden on taxpayers," Horn compared the $950,000 figure for a new unit with the $500,000 for improvement of the old one.

Despite Horn's stand, Council has already moved in favor of a new plant, as has the Board of Public Utilities. This decision was inherited from last year's lawmaking body.

Last night's decision to table the declaration of intention was confirmed on a 7-0 vote.

In answering Crawford's question on Council's commitment toward the project, Solicitor Kenneth Robbins said all indications are that the state sometime will force erection of a new plant or improvement of the old facility.

The city's present plant, deemed less than adequate by the Ohio Board of Water Pollution Control, operates under a yearly permit granted by the state agency. This body has decreed that future renewal permits will be contingent on what steps Circleville will take to improve its disposal operation.

Ervin Leist, local utilities head, reviewed the city's reasons for favoring a new plant rather than expand the old one. He said he will be willing to meet with new councilmen for a further rundown on the proposed project.

Robbins pointed out that court proceedings will be necessary for condemnation of the Marfield tract since the desired property is entailed. According to Leist, utilities officials will meet Mar. 12 with heirs of the estate concerning future negotiations.

'Follies' Talent Party Draws Approximately 125

Approximately 125 persons attended the "kick off" party yesterday evening for the March 20-21 production of "High Fever Follies." It was held in St. Phillips' parish house, where rehearsals will also be held for the forthcoming Berger Guild show.

Bill Harrod, director from the Jerome Cargill Co. in New York, arrived in Circleville Tuesday morning. Also working with him in an apprenticeship capacity is Bruce Craig.

Entertaining the group Tuesday night were Mr. and Mrs. Art Mershon with a novelty act; Earl Bowen, an Irish tenor; Mrs. R. E. Knecht and Mrs. Teresa Montevan, who sang vocal solos, and Wayne Smith with a magic act.

Assisting at the punch table was Mrs. Frank Moore, general chairman. Mrs. Robert McCoy, talent chairman, Mrs. Manuel Sanguily, Mrs. Richard Tucker and Mrs. Kenneth Williams.

DIRECTOR Harrod was introduced and he selected a number of couples to demonstrate the dance steps. He announced rehearsal hours at the parish house for a chorus line, 9:30 to 11 a.m. and show girls, 11 a.m. to 12 noon on Tuesdays and Thursdays; skits, solos and specialty acts, Tuesday and Thursday evenings, 8 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.; women will rehearse in the mornings and couples planning to participate will rehearse from 8 to 10:30 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays.

An interesting sidelight of the event is that a former member of the Radio City Music Hall Rockettes, Mrs. Viola Benzenberg, will dance with the local chorus line in the show.

Announcement of the entire cast will be made when placement and casting is completed. Regular tickets are now on sale. They may be obtained from any Guild member, members of the cast, The Hospital Gift Shop, The Pickaway Arms, The Children's Shop or by contacting the ticket chairmen, Mrs. Carl M. Bach or Mrs. Harry Clifton.

Driver Loses License under Point System

Charles Neil White, 42, Ashville, had his driver's license suspended for six months today by acting Municipal Court Judge Dave Kraft under the Ohio license point system.

White has been convicted six times for speeding since May, 1962. Each conviction carries a penalty of two points.

Also appearing in court today was Charles M. Frazier, 19, Lucasville. He was fined $25 and costs with $10 of the fine suspended, on a charge of failure to stop within an assured cleared distance.

Signing waivers of court hearings were Ronald B. Flowers, 21, Columbus, and Willie C. Honaker, 38, Bucyrus. Flowers was fined $15 and costs for speeding 65 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone. Honaker was fined $20 and costs for speeding 70 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

Ugliness Is 'Sinful'

NEW YORK (AP)—"Happiness is not a worthy end," remarked Edward D. Stone, who has been haunted by beauty all his life.

"Everybody runs through emotional cycles, depending on his nature, which may range from suicidal despair to ecstatic exultation."

To Stone, who has been acclaimed as America's greatest living architect, the best answer to the challenge of existence is the dedication that comes with creative work.

"I feel sorry for people who spend their lives doing nothing but buying eggs for three cents and selling them for five cents. They only do this to get money to buy more enjoyment for themselves and their families," Stone said.

"But creative work is absorbing in itself, and material gain is a byproduct, not the main end. The thrill of creation is the greatest of all."

Stone, a tall, courtly, broad-browed man of 62, started the study of architecture in his youth in Fayetteville, Ark., a town which he whimsically says has been described as "a hotbed of tranquility."

Since then the scope of his output has been tremendous and worldwide. It includes the famed U.S. Embassy in India; a $20-million hospital in Peru; hotels in Panama and Lebanon; museums, dormitories, libraries, cultural centers, factories, pharmaceutical laboratories, civic buildings, banks, private homes and a monastery.

At present he and his staff of 200 assistants are planning or completing work on a dozen projects. Among them are several buildings at the New York World's Fair, including two religious pavilions, the Tulsa Civic Center, the Huntington Hartford Gallery of Modern Art here, and the proposed cultural center in Washington, D.C., honoring the late President John F. Kennedy.

Stone, a determined individualist, puts the stamp of his own personality on every building designed by his firm.

Here is how he views his art: "Ugliness is sinful, because, like sin, ugliness reflects a grossness of mind and a poverty of spirit, a robot-like materialism that implies a denial of a bridge to the angels, a glimpse of perfection."

"Great art is the result of peace, prosperity and leisure. We have all these things, but our country hasn't yet reached the philosophical point where we want to leave a heritage of loveliness to future times."

"A hero of mine, Frank Lloyd Wright, used to say, 'Love your work, love your wife, love the truth.' To this I would only add, 'Love God—that's all there is to life.'"

The Business World

NEW YORK (AP)—Rising prices of coffee and gyrations in the price of sugar mean more to the average family than increased prices of steel and aluminum products. And so do any boosts in commutation or other transportation costs and any increase in medical fees or hospital insurance.

So nervousness over a possible widespread increase in the price of goods and services is being evidenced increasingly. Nor does it help to learn that Britain, having prospered mightily after a cut in taxes, is now threatened with inflation, as are the increasingly affluent economies of many Continental European nations.

The United States also is trying a tax cut to boost economic growth. And the pundits, both on Capitol Hill and in banking and industry, are assessing its possible effects on the prices of commodities. These have stayed remarkably stable in recent years.

The upward trend in the cost of living has been traced rather to the increased charges for services and the greater costs of distribution of goods.

The Joint House-Senate Economic Committee is of two minds about the effect of the American tax cut. The $11.5 billion slash, meaning additional consumer buying power, will just boost economic growth but won't set off another inflationary trend—so says the Democratic majority.

The Republican minority says the size of the cut is "likely to result in a buildup of inflationary pressures."

If this pressure develops it could come from several things. A big buying spree could build up demand for goods to a point where industries currently regulated by competition would be free to raise prices.

Or the pressure could come from labor's announced intentions to ask for larger pay increases this year inspired at least in part by the jump in 1963 corporate profits—put at 10 per cent over 1962, with the increase in the 1963 fourth quarter over the third coming to 22 per cent.

Wage increases, tied in with greater buying demand, might result in higher production costs being passed along to the consumer in the form of higher prices.

Finally, those who fear inflation charge that the price-wage spiral might be given an additional whirl by government financial policies. What is feared is a combination of tax cuts, increased government spending, Treasury deficits, and easy money policies that could spell monetary inflation. The argument is that any marked increase in the supply of money and credit could inspire price boosts, and wage demands, eventually wiping out any advantages from cutting federal income tax rates.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

AN IRRITATED reader of a Baltimore newspaper wrote the editor recently, "Your editorials, sir, are ineffectually somniferous, lethargic, pointless, and inefficacious." The editor sent me a copy of the note, adding a footnote, "Do you think these words could have been written by a certain party connected with a Sunday evening TV panel show?"

A condensation of Dr. Johnson's famous dictionary has just been published for the first time. A few of the unfamiliar words therein are clapperclaw, huzz, fleshmonger, scomm, dourby, quiddany, and wamble. Two to one you don't know the meaning of any of them. I certainly didn't!

There is an imaginative couple up Roxbury way in Connecticut who have a cat and a dog. Nothing unusual in that, granted. But wait. The name of this particular cat is "Dog." And the name of the dog is "Cat." The animals answer to their names unfailingly. It's the neighbors who are confused!

Bill Feather clipped this out of a Chicago column: "Wouldn't it be wonderful to have a marriage license that expired every few years like a driver's license?"

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

I am 40 years old, married, have 12 children, and, admittedly, I am a worrier. Although I have been feeling well, I decided to get a check-up. I was terrified the moment my new doctor began to question me. When he took my blood pressure and told me it was 170, I panicked so that I have not returned to the doctor, even though he assures me that I was not sick. Is it possible to have high blood pressure without any symptoms?

Mrs. R.M., New Jersey
Dear Mrs. M.: All kinds of hypertension can now be treated with remarkable success. But the key to your problem obviously lies within the phrases: "I am a worrier," "I was terrified," "I panicked and did not return to my doctor."

Many patients under stress or in emotional excitement show a "labile"—which is an unstable or easily changeable blood pressure. A sudden rise to 170 is not unusual, even in the complete absence of symptoms. The assurance that you were not sick apparently did not give you the peace of mind it was intended to.

Your concern is probably entirely unfounded and unnecessary. A return consultation with your physician is imperative. The important doctor-patient relationship is established by time and confidence. When the valuable medical friendship is firmly solidified, your tension, and what is apparently temporary hypertension, will probably disappear.

Stealing GOP Thunder?

By John Chamberlain

Before this year's political campaigning is through, the uses of a loyal opposition are bound to be tested as never before in our history. And it is at least a reasonable speculation that the Republicans, by prodding President Lyndon Johnson to action on foreign policy, will lose the election in the course of saving the country and their own souls.

Barry Goldwater had a presentiment of the probable future when he warned New Hampshire voters the other day that Lyndon Johnson might try a "grandstand play" in foreign affairs. Undoubtedly Goldwater was thinking back to the fate of his old colleague, Senator Capehart of Indiana, in 1962. Capehart had gone all out on the question of our failure to assert the American position on the Soviet arming of Castro's

Cuba, for weeks the Administration derided Capehart for playing at military generalship. But shortly before the election, John F. Kennedy dramatically outgeneraled Capehart and left him limping to the polls on "me-too" crutches.

No politician, of course, can ever feel happy with a merely moral victory. But for Americans, the prospect could be far from calamitous. Already, in Washington, one gets hints that Republican criticism of the Administration is paying off by compelling Johnson to take careful thought about foreign policy. And this thought, while it could be expressed in action at a "grandstand" moment, must, given Johnson's character, combine "can-do" realism with an opportunism that Barry Goldwater and the rest of the Republicans both deride and dread.

Those who know Johnson have all along assured us that the man is incapable of a Munich. I have never taken him for an appeaser myself. But, like any profoundly political personage, Johnson is perfectly capable of letting an issue "go over" until an election problem is solved. Without being an appeaser, Johnson obviously hoped before the Guantánamo and Panama crises to stall off consideration of foreign problems until a "peace and prosperity" campaign had carried him triumphantly into office on his own.

Events have robbed the President of his trust that the Communists would have naturally leaped to the attack. It was only human nature for Johnson to grumble about "bellyachers," for no one likes to be deprived of the chance for a royal progression to victory. But the President's reaction to the Guantánamo "testing" was just vigorous enough to take the sting out of some of Goldwater's and Nixon's speeches.

And on the subject of Vietnam, enough Democrats followed the lead of Senator Tom Dodd of Connecticut to make it apparent that Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield was not speaking for the party when he mentioned the possibility of "neutralization" in Southeast Asia.

For a while it looked as if the Johnson Administration might be willing to think about carrying the war against the Communist threat in Southeast Asia into North Vietnam itself. This was the "toughest" suggestion since Richard Nixon, then Vice President, advocated U.S. intervention to help the French hold North Vietnam at Dienbienphu some ten years ago. It would involve attacking an enemy's "privileged sanctuary," a conception which has been left out of our gentlemanly theory of fighting non-gentlemen ever since Harry Truman, in the one big blot on an admirable career, removed General MacArthur from his command in Korea.

That Lyndon Johnson may be coming around to a "Republican" way of thinking may be a cause for ironical laughter among sophisticates. But the great majority of Americans will never attach party labels to measures designed to lick the Communists provided that they are the indicated things to do. In this sense politics does indeed "stop at the water's edge."

If we do cease our policy of vacillation in foreign affairs, Nixon and Goldwater will be intellectually and morally vindicated. But Johnson, as the architect of a change, would be able to say that the shift was entirely in consonance with his own Texas character. People, in the event of a shift, would thank Barry Goldwater—and vote for Lyndon.

It pains me, as a conservative, to have to say this. But I would settle for any President who has the will to defeat the Communists.

Wage increases, tied in with greater buying demand, might result in higher production costs being passed along to the consumer in the form of higher prices.

Finally, those who fear inflation charge that the price-wage spiral might be given an additional whirl by government financial policies. What is feared is a combination of tax cuts, increased government spending, Treasury deficits, and easy money policies that could spell monetary inflation. The argument is that any marked increase in the supply of money and credit could inspire price boosts, and wage demands, eventually wiping out any advantages from cutting federal income tax rates.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

AN IRRITATED reader of a Baltimore newspaper wrote the editor recently, "Your editorials, sir, are ineffectually somniferous, lethargic, pointless, and inefficacious." The editor sent me a copy of the note, adding a footnote, "Do you think these words could have been written by a certain party connected with a Sunday evening TV panel show?"

A condensation of Dr. Johnson's famous dictionary has just been published for the first time. A few of the unfamiliar words therein are clapperclaw, huzz, fleshmonger, scomm, doubry, quiddany, and wamble. Two to one you don't know the meaning of any of them. I certainly didn't!

There is an imaginative couple up Roxbury way in Connecticut who have a cat and a dog. Nothing unusual in that, granted. But wait. The name of this particular cat is "Dog." And the name of the dog is "Cat." The animals answer to their names unflinching. It's the neighbors who are confused!

Bill Feather clipped this out of a Chicago column: "Wouldn't it be wonderful to have a marriage license that expired every few years like a driver's license?"

BLITZ BROTHERS by SARKEN

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

I am 40 years old, married, have 12 children, and, admittedly, I am a worrier. Although I have been feeling well, I decided to get a check-up. I was terrified the moment my new doctor began to question me. When he took my blood pressure and told me it was 170, I panicked so that I have not returned to the doctor, even though he assures me that I was not sick. Is it possible to have high blood pressure without any symptoms?

Mrs. R.M., New Jersey

Dear Mrs. M.: All kinds of hypertension can now be treated with remarkable success. But the key to your problem obviously lies within the phrases: "I am a worrier," "I was terrified," "I panicked and did not return to my doctor."

Many patients under stress or in emotional excitement show a "labile"—which is an unstable or easily changeable blood pressure. A sudden rise to 170 is not unusual, even in the complete absence of symptoms. The assurance that you were not sick apparently did not give you the peace of mind it was intended to.

Your concern is probably entirely unfounded and unnecessary. A return consultation with your physician is imperative. The important doctor-patient relationship is established by time and confidence. When the valuable medical friendship is firmly solidified, your tension, and what is apparently temporary hypertension, will probably disappear.

Stealing GOP Thunder?

By John Chamberlain

Before this year's political campaigning is through, the uses of a loyal opposition are bound to be tested as never before in our history. And it is at least a reasonable speculation that the Republicans, by prodding President Lyndon Johnson to action on foreign policy, will lose the election in the course of saving the country and their own souls.

Barry Goldwater had a presentiment of the probable future when he warned New Hampshire voters the other day that Lyndon Johnson might try a "grandstand play" in foreign affairs. Undoubtedly Goldwater was thinking back to the fate of his old colleague, Senator Capehart of Indiana, in 1962. Capehart had gone all out on the question of our failure to assert the American position on the Soviet arming of Castro's

Cuba, for weeks the Administration derided Capehart for playing at military generalship. But shortly before the election, John F. Kennedy dramatically outgeneraled Capehart and left him limping to the polls on "me-too" crutches.

No politician, of course, can ever feel happy with a merely moral victory. But for Americans, the prospect could be far from calamitous. Already, in Washington, one gets hints that Republican criticism of the Administration is paying off by compelling Johnson to take careful thought about foreign policy. And this thought, while it could be expressed in action at a "grandstand" moment, must, given Johnson's character, combine "can-do" realism with the opportunism that Barry Goldwater and the rest of the Republicans both desire and dread.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE — We welcome letters to the editor. They must be signed by the writer with a complete return address. However the name and address will not be used in the published letter upon request of the writer. Opinions expressed in this column are those of the writers and not necessarily those of The Herald.

Dear Sir:

Several students of Teays Valley High School, as well as some adults in the area, feel that your coverage of sport activities in the Circleville and Teays Valley High Schools is a bit unfair and prejudiced.

True, we will agree, The Herald is a hometown newspaper and that you should give ample support to your fine school. But we don't agree that you should be so prejudiced.

We are appealing to you at this time to be a little more considerate when writing such news articles. Please give us the same thoughtfulness that you give to your school.

Please note this example: In the issue of Feb. 28, 1964, you had in large headlines (two lines) words making it very clear that Circleville lost its game the night before. (Our sympathy, by the way). Is this something to brag about?

Nothing was mentioned, however, about Teays Valley going for an 18th straight win. Of course, you did have a nice article the night before.

I also have witnessed the fact that when TV wins, we are given a small corner of the sports page. When Circleville wins, an article stating so is very clearly seen. This is the main article on the sports page that night, many times.

Congratulations! We're glad you won. (It does come hard for you in basketball). Please — give us some credit, too.

Please understand that this is not the case at all times. The Herald has given our school some nice writeups in the past that no one has said anything about.

I feel that I'm safe in saying that The Herald has at least 300 subscribers in this area. In addition to this, there is a newsstand in Ashville that sells the Herald. We all ask you to give ample and fair coverage to Teays Valley's sport activities.

May I stress again, we of the Teays Valley district can't understand for the life of us why you want to play it up so big when Circleville loses.

A TEAYS VALLEY STUDENT

Those who know Johnson have all along assured us that the man is incapable of a Munich. I have never taken him for an appeaser myself. But, like any profoundly political personage, Johnson is perfectly capable of letting an issue "go over" until an election problem is solved. Without being an appeaser, Johnson obviously hoped before the Guantánamo and Panama crises to stall off consideration of foreign problems until a "peace and prosperity" campaign had carried him triumphantly into office on his own.

Events have robbed the President of his trust that the Communists would have naturally leaped to the attack. It was only human nature for Johnson to grumble about "bellyachers", for no one likes to be deprived of the chance for a royal progression to victory. But the President's reaction to the Guantánamo "testing" was just vigorous enough to take the sting out of some of Goldwater's and Nixon's speeches.

And on the subject of Vietnam, enough Democrats followed the lead of Senator Tom Dodd of Connecticut to make it apparent that Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield was not speaking for the party when he mentioned the possibility of "neutralization" in Southeast Asia.

For a while it looked as if the Johnson Administration might be willing to think about carrying the war against the Communist threat in Southeast Asia into North Vietnam itself. This was the "toughest" suggestion since Richard Nixon, then Vice President, advocated U. S. intervention to help the French hold North Vietnam at Dienbienphu some ten years ago. It would involve attacking an enemy's "privileged sanctuary", a conception which has been left out of our gentlemanly theory of fighting non-gentlemen ever since Harry Truman, in the one big blot on an admirable career, removed General MacArthur from his command in Korea.

That Lyndon Johnson may be coming around to a "republican" way of thinking may be a cause for ironical laughter among sophisticates. But the great majority of Americans will never attach party labels to measures designed to lick the Communists provided that they are the indicated things to do. In this sense politics does indeed "stop at the water's edge."

If we do cease our policy of vaccination in foreign affairs, Nixon and Goldwater will be intellectually and morally vindicated. But Johnson, as the architect of a change, would be able to say that the shift was entirely in consonance with his own Texas character. People, in the event of a shift, would thank Barry Goldwater — and vote for Lyndon.

It pains me, as a conservative, to have to say this. But I would settle for any President who has the will to defeat the Communists.

Looking Back in Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO
The Pickaway County Spelling Bee was scheduled to be held in Jackson Twp. school auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Clydus Fausnaugh, 531 Elm Ave., returned from a two-week vacation in Hawaii and San Francisco, Calif.

Suggestions
On Foot Care

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

Are you a step ahead when it comes to foot care or are you lagging behind?

To discover the answer, take this quiz and see how you score:

1. Do feet get a daily bath?
2. Are you careful to dry between toes?
3. Do you trim toenails occasionally, clipping them straight across?
4. Do you change off shoes so that you never wear the same pair two days running?
5. Do you rinse out nylons after each wearing?
6. If corns and calluses are troublesome do you visit a podiatrist regularly?
7. Do you have lifts repaired at the first sign that they're wearing down?
8. Do you select shoes with both comfort and style in mind?
9. Do you avoid wearing very high heels except on special social occasions?

Needless to say, your answer to each of these questions should be a resounding Yes!

If you have more than two No answers, your feet aren't getting all the care they need and deserve.

While we're on the subject of feet, two products are worth a bit of attention.

One is a foot massager that is a delight to use.

Rest feet on it and it vibrates away that weary feeling. This gadget is really great if your schedule is one that keeps you on your feet for hours every day.

The other product helps you keep up appearances where feet are concerned.

It's a unique spray that can be used to give smooth leather a patent finish or to give patent leather a new color.

Available in black, brown, ivy green, red, gray and navy, the spray is the latest in a series of products that enable milady to match her shoes to her costume in a matter of minutes.

Family Night
Held by Group

The Five Points Methodist Church WSCS and the Social Hour Club combined meetings last week and held family night in the church basement.

There were 40 present for the dinner preceding the program.

The theme of the program was "Do You Remember". David Long gave the welcome followed by group singing of "In the Garden." Pat Dawson presented the Gettysburg Address and the Rev. Charles Hill sang "He Tenderly Looked at Me."

Barbara Tallman and Jimmy Armentrout presented a monologue. Laura Long and Garnet Porter gave readings. The Junior Choir sang "The Old Rugged Cross." Mrs. Jay Woo gave a talk on Korea, showed pictures and displayed costumes, dolls and cards.

Janet Davis won the door prize. Rev. Hill closed the program with prayer.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shambaugh, Ephrata, Pa., have returned home after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Ned R. Young and daughter Patricia, 316 E. Union St. Shambaugh and Young served together in the Navy Seabees in World War II and visit each other at least once every two years.

FASHIONED FOR SPRING — This suit with its slim skirt and double-breasted jacket was designed by Hardy Amies, couturier for the royal family of England. Of British woolen it features soft tones of pink and gray in a shadow check.

17 Attend
Mrs. Marion's
Class Meeting

Mrs. Marion's Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Warren O. Harmon, Jefferson Addition.

Assisting hostesses were Miss Margie Carmean, Mrs. Edgar McClure and Mrs. Roger Lozier. Refreshments were served to 17 members.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Clark McFarland, who used the topic, "Easter is Believing". Miss Ruth Stout, president, conducted the business meeting.

An election of officers will be held at the next meeting. Mrs. Milton Griest and Mrs. Herbert Southward were appointed to the nominating committee.

Games were conducted and prizes were won by Mrs. David Goldschmidt and Mrs. Forrest Thomerson.

The date for the next meeting has been changed. It will be held Mar. 30 in the home of Mrs. Lester Wolford, Route 2, Williamsport. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Della Wertman and Mrs. Olan V. Bostwick. Devotions will be given by Mrs. Dwight Steele.

Family Dinner
Held Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Franklin, Walnut Creek Pike, were hosts to a family carry-in dinner Sunday honoring their son, Randy, who left Monday for basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas.

Those present were his grandmother, Mrs. J. E. Franklin, Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newton, Waverly; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Landrum, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Landrum and children Patty and Mike; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Landrum and children, Valerie, Cindy, Pam and Bruce, all of New Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Curry and children, Mary Ann, Lynn, Kathy, Betsy and Terry of South Bloomingburg, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lemley, Chillicothe, and Sherry Ann Franklin of the residence.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

Pick an 'Off' Season!

DEAR ABBY: My brother, two sisters and I are married and we all live in Oakland, California. My mother, who is 76, lives alone in Illinois. She has relatives there, but none of them bothers with her. She has fought with every companion we've hired to live with her, and she's getting to the point where she shouldn't be living alone. (Her hearing is failing and she is very forgetful). I have begged her to come to California and live with me, but she doesn't want to move. If she wanted to be independent she could have her own apartment near me, where I would be only minutes away if she needed me for anything. She has plenty of money in the bank and a monthly income. She refuses to move, and all she talks about is dying. I certainly can't move to Illinois. What's the solution?

NO NAMES PLEASE

DEAR NO NAMES: Go to Illinois during the blistering heat of the summer, or the biting, bitter cold of the winter. "Kidnap" your mother and take her to Oakland. Once she sees that Golden Gate she'll stop talking about the pearly ones.

DEAR ABBY: For two years I have been married to a man who had been married for 16 years to another woman. She passed away. Something has been irritating me, and I don't know whether I should mention it to Roswell or not. He has the habit of referring to his first wife as "MY WIFE." Abby, I am his wife!

Don't you think he should either refer to her by name, or else as my "FIRST WIFE" or even my "FORMER WIFE"? I don't expect him to blot out the memory of 16 years with another woman, but it hurts me deeply to hear Roswell refer to her as his wife.

HIS WIFE

DEAR WIFE: The next time it occurs, correct him ever so gently with, "Roswell darling, I am your wife. She is your former wife." Repeat the reminder until the memories of 16 years fade—as they will.

DEAR ABBY: I am 100 per cent with that man from California who said that all women who wore slacks on the street should be fined. The woman who wrote in and told him to go jump in the lake, should go jump in her Bible. I refer to Duteronomy: Chapter 22, Verse

New Officers
Named by Guild No. 28

New officers were named when members of Berger Hospital Guild No. 28 met yesterday at the Pickaway Country Club. Mrs. Hal Dickinson was hostess.

Mrs. Gloria Eberwein was appointed chairman. Serving with her will be Mrs. Alice Stout, vice - chairman; Mrs. Vera Downs, secretary; Mrs. Dickinson, treasurer; Mrs. Ethel Palsgove, sunshine fund chairman. Business reports were given. A dessert course was served and a social hour was held.

Members of Monday Club will meet 8 p. m. Monday in the trustees room at Memorial Hall.

Labor Backs Tory Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The British Labor party leader, Harold Wilson, strongly supported Tuesday the British government position in its split with the United States over relations with Cuba and Red China.

Wilson, who conferred Monday with President Johnson, made clear at a news conference that on these issues there will be no backing away from the British stand if his party wins the next election in Britain.

Journalists
Delay Parley

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Clarence Brown Jr., of Urbana, program chairman, announced today postponement of the Sigma Delta Chi meeting here Friday at which candidates for the U. S. senatorial nominations were to speak.

Robert Taft Jr. and Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, Republicans, had accepted invitations. John Glenn Jr., a hospital patient with a head injury, would have been unable to appear. Brown said no acceptance had been received from his opponent for the Democratic nomination, incumbent Sen. Stephen M. Young.

The program chairman said the meeting of the professional journalism society will be held in April, on a date to be announced.

Popular Melody

NEW YORK (AP) — Twenty-nine per cent of the nation's elementary and secondary schools have school songs based on Notre Dame's "Victory March," a recent research project reveals.

According to the poll, five other popular college songs form the basis for an additional 60 per cent. They are Cornell's "High Above Cayuga's Waters" and Yale's "Whiffenpoof Song" and "Boola-Boola," the University of Maine's "Stein Song" and Wisconsin's "On, Wisconsin."

Made on 30 Cases in Feb.

Disposition of 30 cases was made during February by Pickaway County Common Pleas Court.

The court's backlog showed that books were closed on eight divorces, 10 civil suits and 12 criminal matters. Nineteen of the cases were tried to court, two were tried before a jury, five were cognovit or default judgments and four were settled or dismissed.

The month opened with 172 cases (65 divorces, 82 civil and 25 criminal) pending action by the court. Twenty new cases (10 divorce and 10 civil) were filed during the month.

With the disposition of 30 cases, a grand total of 162 matters (67 divorces, 82 other civil suits and 13 criminal cases) were pending action as of March 1.

The Fourth District Court of Appeals did not meet here in February, which began with two cases pending action of the court. One new case was filed in February, making a total of three cases on the backlog.

State Retains Rights To Oil, Gas Deposits

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe ruled Tuesday that gas and oil rights are not included in sale or lease of portions of state land.

Saxbe's opinion to Natural Resources Director Fred E. Morr affirmed a 1958 ruling that "portion of lands" means a "portion of the area" and not underground mineral deposits. Morr requested the opinion to determine whether the Division of Parks could sell gas and oil from lands under its administration.

HOFFA TRIAL RECORDS—John E. Hamlin (left), Nashville, Tenn., and Richard Smith, Chattanooga, Tenn., court reporters, look over the 30 volumes they have recorded so far in the jury tampering trial of Teamsters president Jimmy Hoffa in Chattanooga. They estimate they have recorded 1,649,800 words, amounting to about 720 hours of work between them.

Arkansas GOP Likes Rocky-Winthrop, That Is

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Republicans like the idea of running Winthrop Rockefeller for governor.

But they prefer Sen. Barry Goldwater to Rockefeller's brother, Nelson, in the race for the GOP presidential nomination.

The varying attitude toward the two Rockefellers has created an intraparty split among Arkansas Republicans which could keep Winthrop out of the governor's race again.

Rockefeller has spent 10 years preparing to run for governor as a Republican in this traditionally Democratic state.

He built his personal image with social, civic and industrial development work. He built the party with dollars, drive and determination.

Now he appears ready to run. He has been increasingly critical of Democratic Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who is expected to be a sixth-term candidate.

But the specter of his brother, governor of New York, haunts him. Winthrop has been trying to line up Arkansas National convention votes for Nelson and this has aroused the wrath of Goldwater supporters.

Rockefeller is GOP national committeeman for Arkansas.

NEW YORK (AP)—Last September when the U.S. State Department was busy arranging a three-day state visit of Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia, NBC was almost as busy preparing a report on the etiquette of a state visit.

The report, "Our Man In Washington," was shown Tuesday night.

NBC cameras were in State Department offices when Angier Biddle Duke, in charge of protocol, discussed final details with the Ethiopian ambassador.

Cameras were in the royal train as it drew up to the Washington station platform and a formal reception complete with a 21-gun salute.

Cameras were in the kitchens during preparations for a lavish State Department luncheon. They were behind the bar at the emperor's $9,000, 1,000-guest reception for official Washington.

Cameras were trained on President John F. Kennedy, looking healthy and tanned, as he received the emperor.

Sight of the late president was a damper to this viewer on the rest of the light-hearted program.

It was one of David Brinkley's occasional specials. Perhaps because of the presence of Kennedy, he seemed rather restrained in his comment.

Brinkley does have a keen eye for detail. He noted the care used to hang Ethiopian flags right side up — because they become Bolivian flags when upside down. His cameras lingered lovingly on bartenders agile hands, on platters of meatballs and shrimps at the cocktail party, on the pastry gun making icing rosettes on a cake.

A touching moment was recorded after the emperor, an admirer of Abraham Lincoln, had laid a silver wreath at the Lincoln Memorial. As an interpreter translated the Gettysburg Address, tears were clearly visible in the sovereign's eyes.

"Our Man In Washington" made magnificent use of color. For those who saw the program in all its glory it was a most interesting 60 minutes. For others it must have dragged frequently. There was a marked tendency to linger overlong, like impolite guests, at the receptions and parties.

"Alfred Hitchcock Presents," dropped by CBS from next season's schedule, will return to NBC, replacing the "Eleventh Hour."

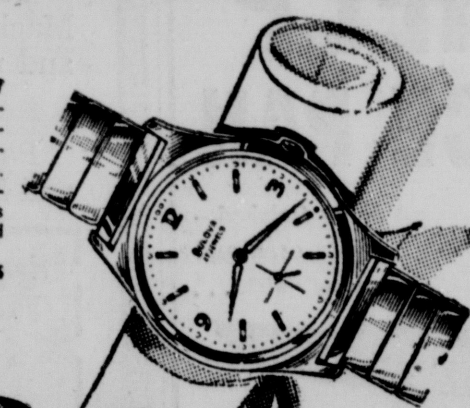

Recommended tonight: "The Danny Kaye Show," CBS, 10-11 EST.

Costs Up in New Index

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government announced Tuesday that a newly broadened sampling of prices in the nation showed living costs rose in January by about one-tenth of 1 per cent.

The new consumer price index, announced by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, showed it costs $10.77 to buy the items that cost one cent less in December.

A spokesman said the new index covers a range of 400 typical consumer items, compared with about 325 in the old statistical measuring device.

The old index showed no change over the month.

"The new index more accurately reflects the movement of prices," said Arnold Chase, the bureau's assistant commissioner for wages and prices.

Increases in food, fuel and gasoline prices were largely responsible for the increase.

Food advanced four-tenths of 1 per cent. This was largely due to green vegetables, which were up more than 20 per cent; eggs, which were up more than 6 per cent, and sugar which also rose.

Chase said the new index will raise some legal problems in connection with labor contracts that provide for wage increases based on the cost of living.

Disposition Made on 30 Cases in Feb.

Disposition of 30 cases was made during February by Pickaway County Common Pleas Court.

The court's backlog showed that books were closed on eight divorces, 10 civil suits and 12 criminal matters. Nineteen of the cases were tried to court, two were tried before a jury, five were cognovit or default judgments and four were settled or dismissed.

The month opened with 172 cases (65 divorces, 82 civil and 25 criminal) pending action by the court. Twenty new cases (10 divorce and 10 civil) were filed during the month.

With the disposition of 30 cases, a grand total of 162 matters (67 divorces, 82 other civil suits and 13 criminal cases) were pending action as of March 1.

The Fourth District Court of Appeals did not meet here in February, which began with two cases pending action of the court. One new case was filed in February, making a total of three cases on the backlog.

State Retains Rights To Oil, Gas Deposits

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe ruled Tuesday that gas and oil rights are not included in sale or lease of portions of state land.

Saxbe's opinion to Natural Resources Director Fred E. Morr affirmed a 1958 ruling that "portion of lands" means a "portion of the area" and not underground mineral deposits. Morr requested the opinion to determine whether the Division of Parks could sell gas and oil from lands under its administration.

They estimate they have recorded 1,649,800 words, amounting to about 720 hours of work between them.

Arkansas GOP Likes Rocky-Winthrop, That Is

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Republicans like the idea of running Winthrop Rockefeller for governor.

But they prefer Sen. Barry Goldwater to Rockefeller's brother, Nelson, in the race for the GOP presidential nomination.

The varying attitude toward the two Rockefeller brothers has created an intraparty split among Arkansas Republicans which could keep Winthrop out of the governor's race again.

Rockefeller has spent 10 years preparing to run for governor as a Republican in this traditionally Democratic state.

He built his personal image with social, civic and industrial development work. He built the party with dollars, drive and determination.

Now he appears ready to run. He has been increasingly critical of Democratic Gov. Orval E. Faubus, who is expected to be a sixth-term candidate.

But the specter of his brother, governor of New York, haunts him. Winthrop has been trying to line up Arkansas National convention votes for Nelson and this has aroused the wrath of Goldwater supporters.

Ohio Highway Chief Named In Lawsuit

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—Pearl E. Masheter, Ohio's director of highways, has been named defendant in a court action seeking his citation for contempt of court.

Maurice Fett of Orange Township, Hancock County, through attorney Richard A. Betts, contends Masheter failed to obey a court order concerning a highway right-of-way purchase.

The state took over 95 of an acre of Fett's property April 13, 1963, in reconstruction U. S. 25. The Highway Department offered the landowner $10,000 for the parcel and deposited it with the clerk of courts. Fett refused to settle for that.

The dispute was tried by a jury last October, and the jury decided the fair price was $22,550. Judge Joe M. Moorehead of Hancock County Common Pleas Court then directed that the $12,550 difference be paid — along with 6 per cent interest on the full $22,550 from April 1963 to the date of the added deposit.

The $12,550 was deposited Jan. 2, 1964, but no interest was paid, Fett contends. His attorney says more than 55 days elapsed since then without the interest forthcoming, calling for a contempt citation.

McNamara Plans Trip

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and eight other top U.S. officials will leave Thursday midnight for an on-the-spot study of the South Viet Nam war for President Johnson.

The Defense Department announced today that McNamara will be in Saigon about a week on his fourth trip to the critical area, in which Communist Guerrillas seemingly have been making progress against the U.S.-backed government.

McNamara will be accompanied by top officials of the State Department, the Central Intelligence Agency, and the Agency for International Development.

Teamster Sentenced On Assault Conviction

CLEVELAND (AP) — David Shell, 26-year-old teamster union member, has been sentenced to 15 days in jail for assault and battery.

Shell, convicted Tuesday, was charged last October with leaving a picket line at a Star Muffler shop and assaulting a customer, Charles E. Arnold, 39, of Cleveland Heights. The incident occurred while Teamster Local 416 was concluding a successful bid to organize the Shop.

Actress Is Busy Body With Newest Movie Role

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Carol Lawrence is a busy little body these days, frantically trying to keep up with the career surge brought on by her role in the musical drama "West Side Story."

"And you know what?" she says, "I'm dead on my feet. Soo-o-o tired." The dark-eyed, raven-haired beauty droops visibly, just thinking about it.

She has been touring and appearing on television as a singer and dancer.

She is also busy being a new-lywed. She and actor-singer Robert Goulet — were married last August. So far their career demands have postponed a honeymoon.

"But after I close here (the Coconut Grove) on the 8th I just have one show to do for television, and then I'm going to rest. I plan to just relax and read and regain my perspective," she says.

"That's the most important thing in the world to me — perspective. Figuring out what I want, what I'm willing to do for it, and assessing what I'm doing now. I've got to keep reading, thinking, learning new things about life — or just about my work."

Glenn Refuses To Seek Special Favor from Navy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. could begin campaigning for the Democratic senatorial nomination before his release from the Marine Corps, Glenn aides have been told.

They quoted a Pentagon spokesman Tuesday as saying the campaign could get under way if the secretary of the Navy would waive regulations banning the former astronaut from political activity.

There have been reports that Glenn, recuperating in Grant Hospital from a head injury, might ask the secretary of the Navy to waive the regulations.

However, Glenn aides said he has given no indication he will make such a request. Glenn's retirement was to have taken effect March 1 but was delayed until April 1 to resolve the question of losing disability benefits.

Meanwhile, his supporters have started rescheduling his appearances and mapping plans for the abbreviated campaign.

Among other things, Glenn has agreed to debate Sen. Stephen M. Young, his primary election opponent, at the Cleveland City Club on May 2 — providing radio and television coverage is permitted.

Bob Wallace, helping Glenn aides prepare a schedule, said, however, that the agreement is only tentative and would have to get the approval of the club and of Sen. Young.

Glenn sent a letter to his sup-

She muses over her longer-range plans.

"It's really hard to say which aspect of the business I love the most — dancing, singing, or acting. I started as a dancer, of course, but as I get older (she's all of 29 now), the dancing will probably be the first thing to go. Then, I suppose, the voice. So I guess I'll have to rely on acting to carry me over the long haul.

"But at that, I'm lucky. No performer trains as hard as a dancer. Dancing teaches you things about other aspects of performing that you simply do not run across any other way. And it keeps you in good physical condition much longer than most people."

"Not too long ago Bob and I were with Harry Belafonte at a Peace Corps camp in Puerto Rico. They had an obstacle course there — ropes to climb, slack ropes to walk across and all that — and they asked me if I'd like to try it. I'll do anything once, so I did. And I passed the whole thing first time. They were amazed! And they said passing the course qualified me for assignment to Peru! So you see, I'm in pretty good shape, don't you think?"

Ohio Highway Chief Named In Lawsuit

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—Pearl E. Masheter, Ohio's director of highways, has been named defendant in a court action seeking his citation for contempt of court.

Maurice Fett of Orange Township, Hancock County, through attorney Richard A. Betts, contends Masheter failed to obey a court order concerning a highway right-of-way purchase.

The state took over .95 of an acre of Fett's property April 13, 1963, in reconstruction U. S. 25. The Highway Department offered the landowner $10,000 for the parcel and deposited it with the clerk of courts. Fett refused to settle for that.

The dispute was tried by a jury last October, and the jury decided the fair price was $22,550. Judge Joe M. Moorehead of Hancock County Common Pleas Court then directed that the $12,550 difference be paid it, along with 6 per cent interest on the full $22,550 from April 1963 to the date of the added deposit.

The $12,550 was deposited Jan. 2, 1964, but no interest was paid, Fett contends. His attorney says more than 55 days elapsed since then without the interest forthcoming, calling for a contempt citation.

McNamara Plans Trip

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and eight other top U.S. officials will leave Thursday night for an on-the-spot study of the South Viet Nam war for President Johnson.

The Defense Department announced today that McNamara will be in Saigon about a week on his fourth trip to the critical area, in which Communist Guerrillas seemingly have been making progress against the U.S.-backed government.

McNamara will be accompanied by top officials of the State Department, the Central Intelligence Agency, and the Agency for International Development.

Teamster Sentenced On Assault Conviction

CLEVELAND (AP) — David Shell, 26-year-old teamsters union member, has been sentenced to 15 days in jail for assault and battery.

Shell, convicted Tuesday, was charged last October with leaving a picket line at a Star Muffler shop and assaulting a customer, Charles E. Arnold, 39, of Cleveland Heights. The incident occurred while Teamster Local 416 was concluding a successful bid to organize the Shop.

Actress Is Busy Body With Newest Movie Role

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Carol Lawrence is a busy little body these days, frantically trying to keep up with the career surge brought on by her role in the musical drama "West Side Story."

"And you know what?" she says, "I'm dead on my feet. Soo-o-o tired." The dark-eyed, raven-haired beauty droops visibly, just thinking about it.

She has been touring and appearing on television as a singer and dancer.

She is also busy being a new-lywed. She and actor-singer Robert Goulet — were married last August. So far their career demands have postponed a honeymoon.

"But after I close here (the Coconut Grove) on the 8th I just have one show to do for television, and then I'm going to rest. I plan to just relax and read and regain my perspective," she says.

"That's the most important thing in the world to me—perspective. Figuring out what I want, what I'm willing to do for it, and assessing what I'm doing now. I've got to keep reading, thinking, learning new things about life—or just about my work."

Glenn Refuses To Seek Special Favor from Navy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. could begin campaigning for the Democratic senatorial nomination before his release from the Marine Corps, Glenn aides have been told.

They quoted a Pentagon spokesman Tuesday as saying the campaign could get under way if the secretary of the Navy would waive regulations banning the former astronaut from political activity.

There have been reports that Glenn, recuperating in Grant Hospital from a head injury, might ask the secretary of the Navy to waive the regulations.

However, Glenn aides said he has given no indication he will make such a request. Glenn's retirement was to have taken effect March 1 but was delayed until April 1 to resolve the question of losing disability benefits.

Meanwhile, his supporters have started rescheduling his appearances and mapping plans for the abbreviated campaign.

Among other things, Glenn has agreed to debate Sen. Stephen M. Young, his primary election opponent, at the Cleveland City Club on May 2—providing radio and television coverage is permitted.

Bob Wallace, helping Glenn aides prepare a schedule, said, however, that the agreement is only tentative and would have to get the approval of the club and of Sen. Young.

Glenn sent a letter to his supporters Tuesday in which he promised to redouble his efforts after being released from the Marines.

"As you all know, I have experienced 'holds' before," the former astronaut said.

Glenn Tuesday was urged to withdraw from the Senate race by Columbus Mayor M. E. Sensenbrenner.

Sensenbrenner, a Democrat, said in a letter to Glenn that the one month in which Glenn will have to campaign "will not leave Ohio voters enough time to learn about John Glenn, politician, to determine whether in his new role he is capable of the achievements made by John Glenn, astronaut."

Sensenbrenner asserted that Glenn should withdraw "as a matter of protecting your integrity" and added: "There must be more than 30 days to determine where John Glenn, candidate, stands."

Pole Tells How Yankees Trapped by Soviet Aides

NEW YORK (AP)—A Polish defector named four American diplomats as Soviet collaborators, blackmailed into the Soviet espionage net by beautiful Polish girls in the late 1950s and early 1960s, the New York Journal-American claims.

The report said sex also was used to entrap a fifth diplomat, later permitted to resign; and 10 U.S. Marine guards at the U.S. Embassy in Warsaw. One Soviet agent also seduced the wife of an American foreign service officer, the newspaper said.

Names were not disclosed. In a copyright account by Guy Richards, the Journal-American said: "So gay and lax was the ambassadorial life in the lush Polish capital, the defector asserted, that while the American cats were out playing, Soviet intelligence mice pilfered the embassy's safe combinations, and probably made off with the embassy cipher essential to decoding secret messages."

The newspaper said the information from Michael Goleniewski, 41, has caused Congress to investigate U.S. security around the world.

In Washington, sources said Goleniewski came to the United States in 1961 after having been in contact with U.S. intelligence agents in Poland since 1958. He was described as the source of information which led to the arrest of several important Soviet bloc spies operating outside the United States.

The New York Journal-American ran a story about Goleniewski Monday and described him as having been a high-ranking operative in the Soviet Union's KGB until his defection.

The newspaper said he had informed U.S. officials that the Kremlin had placed cells in the Central Intelligence Agency and State Department which he was sure were still operating.

Sources said however that the information in the Journal-American was not consistent with information the defector had given the U.S. government.

The sources said Goleniewski, 41, had supplied plenty of information to U.S. intelligence which had been turned over to the FBI and fully checked out. Some of this information was said to have led to the downfall of important Soviet agents abroad.

Derby

Mr. R. G. Looney was ill at his home here for a week. He is reported improved now.

A former resident of Derby is reported in poor condition at his home. John Stage, who now resides in Reynoldsburg, would appreciate cards and letters.

The Cheerio Class of Derby will meet Wednesday, Mar. 11. Mrs. Agnes Mattheas will be the hostess.

Mr. George Graham and daughter, Dorothy, had as Sunday dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham and family of Mt. Sterling, Mrs. Jane Maddux and son, Jerry and the Henry Lewis family.

Mrs. Nelle Bauhan spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hill of Williamsport.

Dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Helen Arledge were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Toops of Logan and Mrs. Lydia Carter of Columbus.

Mrs. Marvene Furniss, a patient in Mt. Carmel Hospital for several weeks, underwent surgery last Thursday.

Slum School Teaching Hit By Educator

CLEVELAND (AP) — Francis Keppel, U. S. commissioner of education, said today new teaching approaches are needed for youngsters in slum schools, including new books "which recognize their existence in our society."

"When textbooks reflect only white middle-class life," Keppel said, "complete with commodious split-level homes, how can we expect to reach poor white, Negro or Puerto Rican children?"

"Instead, we need textbooks written in terms of their own environments, in terms of their own lives and talents and aspirations."

In a speech prepared for the 22nd annual Cleveland Health and Welfare Institute, Keppel said the civil rights movement has turned a spotlight on the problem of the slum school.

That movement, he said, "has called on us to make good what we say—that education is the key to opportunity and that equality of educational opportunity is the right of every American."

Tax Revenue Collections Up in Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Tax revenues for Ohio's general revenue fund the first eight months of this fiscal year overcame a whopping drop in corporation franchise tax collections over-all increase, State Auditor Roger W. Tracy says.

The gain, compared with the same period of fiscal 1963 (July 1-Feb. 28), was $31,165,277. The fiscal 1964 figure through Feb. 29 was $330,325,361.

Tracy explained that the corporation franchise tax decline resulted from the early payment of the tax in February 1963 to help the state during its financial pinch. The month-early payments at the time totaled more than $32 million, compared with $3.6 million in February 1964.

He said March 1964 receipts from this source will offset the discrepancy.

Sales tax collections for the eight months were $178,394,388, up $17,816,799 from the year before. Inheritance taxes totaled $8,584,192, up $1,894,506; insurance taxes, $25,744,863, up $1,880,110; beer, wine and malt, $18,094,904, up $1,675,512; cigarette, $34,403,931, up $710,038; use tax, $8,866,624, up $381,018, and racing, $5,758,832, up $256,855.

Intangible tax collections of $3,795,171 were down $155,363.

Young, Lausche Split On Cotton Bill Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, voted with the majority Tuesday as the Senate defeated, 70-20, a proposed amendment to the cotton section of the farm bill. Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, voted for the amendment offered by Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La.

Babysitter Hiring Proves To Be Universal Problem

NEW YORK (AP) — To get acquainted with her neighbors, it used to be that a new resident would borrow a cup of sugar. Now she goes over and asks, do you know any good babysitters?

It breaks the ice and might turn up someone like Margie Alexander, 16. She marched out her four charges, aged 1 to 7, before the Harry Walsh home at La Honda, Calif., collapsed in flames.

Or the older woman in Columbus, Ohio, who keeps track of the birthdays of the 25 to 30 kids with whom she regularly sits and sends presents, as well as valentines and Christmas gifts, because "I don't need the money and I like children." Or the Kansas City teen-ager who teaches Mrs. Harold Morgan's three oldest children baking while she sits.

The search for the perfect babysitter is a commonly shared quest of American mothers, an Associated Press survey showed. But clinkers are found as often as nuggets.

In California a baby drowned in a tub while a 15-year-old sitter was entertaining her boy friend in the living room.

A disillusioned Connecticut housewife defines a sitter as "someone you pay to watch the kids do what they would do if there were no sitter."

Babysitting has long since passed being the exclusive enterprise of relatives and teenagers.

Metropolitan areas have thriving organized sitter services. In Brooklyn, a department store conducts a training program for sitters, offering such advice as "expect a mess with young children" when eating.

Frequently parents band together and provide sitting service for each other, such as the organization at Emory University where ledgers record the hours used and the hours owed. Prices range from 35 cents an hour in Boise, Idaho, to $1.50 an hour in Los Angeles.

The average fee across the country seems to be 50-75 cents an hour. With this go certain privileges, such as refrigerator and television rights.

Pole Tells How Yankees Trapped by Soviet Aides

NEW YORK (AP)—A Polish defector named four American diplomats as Soviet collaborators, blackmailed into the Soviet espionage net by beautiful Polish girls in the late 1950s and early 1960s, the New York Journal-American claims.

The report said sex also was used to entrap a fifth diplomat, later permitted to resign; and 10 U.S. Marine guards at the U.S. Embassy in Warsaw. One Soviet agent also seduced the wife of an American foreign service officer, the newspaper said.

Names were not disclosed. In a copyright account by Guy Richards, the Journal-American said:

"So gay and lax was the ambassadorial life in the lush Polish capital, the defector asserted, that while the American cats were out playing, Soviet intelligence mice pilfered the embassy's safe combinations, and probably made off with the embassy cipher essential to decoding secret messages."

The newspaper said the information from Michael Goleniewski, 41, has caused Congress to investigate U.S. security around the world.

In Washington, sources said Goleniewski came to the United States in 1961 after having been in contact with U.S. intelligence agents in Poland since 1958. He was described as the source of information which led to the arrest of several important Soviet bloc spies operating outside the United States.

The New York Journal-American ran a story about Goleniewski Monday and described him as having been a high-ranking operative in the Soviet Union's KGB until his defection.

The newspaper said he had informed U.S. officials that the Kremlin had placed cells in the Central Intelligence Agency and State Department which he was sure were still operating.

Sources said however that the information in the Journal-American was not consistent with information the defector had given the U.S. government.

The sources said Goleniewski, 41, had supplied plenty of information to U.S. intelligence which had been turned over to the FBI and fully checked out. Some of this information was said to have led to the downfall of important Soviet agents abroad.

Slum School Teaching Hit By Educator

CLEVELAND (AP)—Francis Keppel, U. S. commissioner of education, said today new teaching approaches are needed for youngsters in slum schools, including new books "which recognize their existence in our society."

"When textbooks reflect only white middle-class life," Keppel said, "complete with commodious split-level homes, how can we expect to reach poor white, Negro or Puerto Rican children?"

"Instead, we need textbooks written in terms of their own environments, in terms of their own lives and talents and aspirations."

In a speech prepared for the 22nd annual Cleveland Health and Welfare Institute, Keppel said the civil rights movement has turned a spotlight on the problem of the slum school.

That movement, he said, "has called on us to make good what we say—that education is the key to opportunity and that equality of educational opportunity is the right of every American."

Tax Cut Due On Paychecks This Week

In Pittsburgh, Norman Reichert, assistant treasurer at Philco Corp. with a 22,000-man payroll, said he expected some salaried persons to ask for an unchanged withholding level—or for one higher than required by law.

"These people in the past have had larger-than-required sums withheld to avoid payment of a large lump sum amount when it comes time to file their annual tax return," Reichert said.

The Philco official said hourly rated production workers apparently all wanted increased take home pay.

Millions of Americans have more money withheld from their paychecks than required so they won't owe too much extra at year's end, or get a refund.

Last year, the Treasury paid out about $5 billion in refunds.

With the 4 per cent reduction in the withholding rate to 14 per cent many taxpayers are concerned that the Treasury won't be taking out enough and they will owe Uncle Sam on this year's income taxes.

However, if too many taxpayers get the idea of having more of their pay withheld, the impetus of the tax cut—pumping additional money into the economy—would be softened.

When the tax bill was drafted last year the plan was to drop the withholding rate to 15 per cent on Jan. 1, then to 14 per cent the next year.

When the bill wasn't passed by Jan. 1 and the withholding rate was still operating at 18 per cent, the question was whether to retain the two-stage reduction plan and probably withhold too much at 15 per cent, or to go immediately to 14 per cent and possibly withhold too little.

The decision was to drop the withholding rate to 14 per cent. "The withholding rate is only an estimate," a Treasury official noted. "We can't be sure now it's going to work out until we've tried it."

If the rate had been reduced from 18 per cent to 15 on Jan. 1 as planned, however, the amount of tax take from the tens of millions of paychecks would have been reduced by $7.2 billion during 1964. Under the present proposal withholding would be reduced $8 billion.

This may leave some taxpayers a little short at income tax filing time in the spring of 1965. In many cases, it probably will mean only a smaller refund.

A taxpayer who doesn't want to take any changes on winding up with a big tax bill at the end of the year can, with his employer's permission, set the figure at any amount he chooses.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather:

Showers and scattered thundershowers, some locally heavy, moved rapidly into Ohio early today.

At 6:30 a.m., 25 of an inch had fallen at Port Columbus Airport in a space of 1½ hours.

Early today, Dayton was 50 with moderate rain, Columbus 47 with thundershowers, Cincinnati 50 with thundershowers, Toledo 41 with fog and Cleveland 43 with fog.

Warm and rainy weather was forecast to continue over the state today and Thursday morning.

After a cold front passage Thursday morning, rain will change to light snow or flurries with temperatures dropping into the 30s by evening.

Chambermen Hear Activity Reports

Committee reports were a main item on the agenda when the Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors met yesterday at Boyer's Restaurant for its March meeting.

The board moved to support and promote "Paint - Up, Clean-Up" Week, scheduled May 3-10. It will be a new project here.

Fritz Jacobs, superintendent of city schools, brought Chamber officials up to date on a proposed Distributive Education program in the city. He said about 40 junior students at CHS have expressed interest.

Jacobs reminded that Clovis Weatherford, a supervisor with the State Department of Education's Distributive Education office, will be in Circleville Mar. 18 and 19 to discuss the program with wholesalers, retailers and service firms.

DONALD Colegrove, chairman of the area development committee, reported on a survey now being conducted on possible industrial plant sites. The study is to be completed this month and the data compiled will be used as reference material for firms interested in locating here.

A congressional action report, submitted by Fiske O'Hara, noted that a letter will be sent to Area Chamber members concerning proper procedure and methods in corresponding with congressmen. He said a continuing study will be made on important legislation due in the House of Representatives and the Senate.

Ninde Lawson, chairman of the public affairs committee, reported that the fifth session of the Political Action Study Course has been completed. He also described his panel's campaign to promote voter registration in the community.

Charles Wellman, heading the health and safety unit, told of a study being conducted on a possible fluoridation program for the city water system. He said several local organizations have expressed favor toward such a project, including the dental profession here.

Mrs. E. R. Bennett informed the directors that last minute details are being worked out in regard to Business-Industry-Education Day scheduled on Mar. 13. She outlined progress to date and what yet remains to be done.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson either overstated the case when he spoke of how much Americans are beloved or the anti-American outbursts by other peoples since Jan. 1 were just lovers' tiffs.

The latest hostility to this country came Tuesday night in Greece. Mobs rioting over the Cyprus civil war burned Johnson in effigy in Athens and on the island of Rhodes mobs stoned American offices.

Greece, which has been receiving foreign aid from this country, is an American ally in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The United States helped save it from communism after the war.

Johnson, talking to a group of government employees here last Feb. 12, said: "Regardless of what you hear we are a much beloved people throughout the world. We are respected and we appreciate it."

He said this after a number of episodes in which Americans had already suffered embarrassments and worse, including death.

Last Jan. 9 in Panama, which has also received U.S. foreign aid, plus rental for the canal, Panamanians rioted against Americans in the Canal Zone.

The basic reason was resentment against U.S. control of the canal zone. In the rioting and shootings 20 people were killed, including three Americans.

Panama wants a change in the 1903 treaty giving this country the right to control the canal indefinitely. It broke off diplomatic relations with the United States and there has been no settlement yet.

In Zanzibar, which got its independence from Britain last Dec. 10 but where the Arab minority controlled the government, black Africans revolted Jan. 12 and set up their own leftist regime.

The Russians recognized their new government quickly but the United States delayed. The Africans responded by arresting and expelling two American diplomats until this country gave recognition Feb. 23.

Zanzibar is part of the British Commonwealth. Also in February in Africa's Ghana the United States was accused, by President Kwame Nkrumah's government-controlled press and radio of being behind the latest alleged attempt to assassinate him.

A mob, steamed up by the dictatorial Nkrumah's politicians, demonstrated before the U.S. Embassy and ran down the American flag. The government deported four American professors.

The United States recalled its ambassador, William P. Mahoney Jr., for consultations. He said the anti-American demonstrations were the climax of feelings which had been building up for some time.

This country has a commitment of $147 million in long-term loans to help build the Volta River dam for Ghana and an aluminum smelter to be run by private American companies for the Ghana government.

Other economic aid from this government to Ghana runs into the millions.

In South Viet Nam, where the United States for eight years has pumped in billions of aid, economic and military, to help its fight against the North Vietnamese Communists, anti-Americanism took a vivid, bloody turn.

The Communists, infiltrating the capital of Saigon and using a deliberate campaign of terror by assassination, have wounded and killed Americans with bombs and bullets.

In Athens Tuesday night the rioters complained the United States is following a pro-Turkish line in attempts to settle the dispute on Cyprus where the Cypriots, Greeks and the outnumbered Turks have slaughtered one another.

ACID-ALKALINE BALANCE

Q. What, if anything, can be done for an alkaline condition of body secretions?

A. Fortunately, the body is fairly well protected against radical changes in the delicately balanced acid-alkaline mechanism. The blood is slightly alkaline. Make it acid and you wouldn't survive to tell about it. The stomach is normally acid but the bile and the intestinal tract are alkaline. And so it goes. Under certain circumstances, conditions of alkalosis or acidosis may develop, but they are situations which must be dealt with by a physician. Don't try to "adjust" the acidity or alkalinity of your body — you might get into serious trouble.

"CLINIC" DEFINED

Q. This may not be a proper question but I'll send it in anyway. What is a "clinic"?

A. In some parts of the country the word "clinic" refers to free dispensaries. Most often, however, the word "clinic" is applied to the offices of several physicians who more or less pool their efforts and practice as a group. According to the American Medical Association, the ethical principles actuating and governing a group or clinic are exactly the same as those applicable to the individual physician.

The true measure of the worth of prescribed medicine lies not in dollars and cents, but in the faster relief from pain and speedier recovery it provides.

Tax Cut Due On Paychecks This Week

In Pittsburgh, Norman Reichert, assistant treasurer at Philco Corp. with a 22,000-man payroll, said he expected some salaried persons to ask for an unchanged withholding level—or for one higher than required by law.

"These people in the past have had larger-than-required sums withheld to avoid payment of a large lump sum amount when it comes time to file their annual tax return," Reichert said.

The Philco official said hourly rated production workers apparently all wanted increased take home pay.

Millions of Americans have more money withheld from their paychecks than required so they won't owe too much extra at year's end, or get a refund.

Last year, the Treasury paid out about $5 billion in refunds.

With the 4 per cent reduction in the withholding rate to 14 per cent many taxpayers are concerned that the Treasury won't be taking out enough and they will owe Uncle Sam on this year's income taxes.

However, if too many taxpayers get the idea of having more of their pay withheld, the impetus of the tax cut—pumping additional money into the economy—would be softened.

When the tax bill was drafted last year the plan was to drop the withholding rate to 15 per cent on Jan. 1, then to 14 per cent the next year.

When the bill wasn't passed by Jan. 1 and the withholding rate was still operating at 18 per cent, the question was whether to retain the two-stage reduction plan and probably withhold too much at 15 per cent, or to go immediately to 14 per cent and possibly withhold too little.

The decision was to drop the withholding rate to 14 per cent. "The withholding rate is only an estimate," a Treasury official noted. "We can't be sure now it's going to work out until we've tried it."

If the rate had been reduced from 18 per cent to 15 on Jan. 1 as planned, however, the amount of tax take from the tens of millions of paychecks would have been reduced by $7.2 billion during 1964. Under the present proposal withholding would be reduced $8 billion.

This may leave some taxpayers a little short at income tax filing time in the spring of 1965. In many cases, it probably will mean only a smaller refund.

A taxpayer who doesn't want to take any changes on winding up with a big tax bill at the end of the year can, with his employer's permission, set the figure at any amount he chooses.

Robertson Is Both Pixie, Pirate

NEW YORK (AP)—He has the face of a pixie and the approach of a pirate. And he just happens to be the most proficient pro the National Basketball Association has ever known.

"He's something like a good insurance policy," Cincinnati Coach Jack McMahon said today about backcourt star Oscar Robertson.

"It's like this," McMahon explained. "In this game, mistakes are bound to happen. But almost every time we make a mistake, Oscar comes up with the ball.

"And when he's got the ball, how much trouble can you be in?"

Robertson contributed 33 points, a dozen assists and was the team's second best rebounder Tuesday night when the Royals fought off New York 117-108 in Madison Square Garden, staying within 2½ games of perennial champion and current front-runner Boston.

The Celtics beat Philadelphia 108-94 in Syracuse in the only other game played Tuesday. Tom Heinsohn hit 23 points and Bill Russell grabbed 36 rebounds for the Celtics, who led all the way.

Bradds Leads All-America '5'

NEW YORK (AP)—Gary Bradds of Ohio State, Cotton Nash of Kentucky, Walt Hazzard of UCLA, Bill Bradley of Princeton and Dave Stallworth of Wichita were named today as the 1964 All-America college basketball team by The Associated Press.

Despite an abundance of good players that made picking difficult in this Olympic year, these five from the Big Ten, Southeastern Conference, Big Six, Ivy League and Missouri Valley easily led in the voting by 71 sport writers and broadcasters.

On the basis of five points for a first-team vote and two points for a second-team vote, Bradds collected a total of 1,199 points.

Badger Thinlies Favored in Test

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Wisconsin's talent-laden Badgers were installed as favorites today to win the Big Ten Conference indoor track-field championship here this weekend.

Michigan's Wolverines, bulwarked by several stars from other countries, were billed as a close second, with the others far behind. Larry Snyder, Ohio State coach who bossed the U.S. cinder forces in the 1960 Olympics at Rome, said the remainder of the field could be Illinois, Purdue, Indiana, Michigan State, Ohio State, Minnesota, Northwestern and Iowa in that order.

A year ago Iowa and Michigan deadlocked for the laurels.

Clay Is Tagged Fighter of Month

NEW YORK (AP)—Cassius Clay, the Louisville bard who threw enough words to fill 10 magazines and enough blows to wrestle the heavyweight title from Sonny Liston, was named the Fighter of the Month for February by Ring magazine Wednesday.

Liston, a seventh-round technical knockout victim Feb. 25, was dropped to the leading challenger's spot by Ring in releasing its monthly ratings. In other heavyweight division changes, Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., and Eddie Machen of Los Angeles each moved up one place, to fourth and fifth respectively, and Britain's Henry Cooper, winner over countryman Brian London, replaced his victim in 10th place.

Williamsport Set For University

The Williamsport Deers move into the Pickaway County basketball spotlight tonight when they tangle with Columbus University at 6:30 in the State Fairgrounds Coliseum at Columbus.

They play the second of a four-game card. They are the sole Pickaway County representatives in the semifinals of the Class A Central District tournament.

Berne Union, the other winner of the Teays Valley sectional, will meet Pleasant Twp. at 9:30 p. m.

The evening's schedule begins at 5 p. m. when Marion Catholic meets Licking Valley. The third game finds Newark Catholic playing Centerville.

THE DEERS, paced by three All-Pickaway County League players, will be facing one of the top ranked teams in the state.

The little Bucks have lost only to Mansfield Senior High School, a Class AA quintet.

They are paced by All - Ohio

Jim Maloney Shows His Irish Wit

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Jim Maloney is a young Irishman from Fresno, Calif. with a refreshing sense of humor and a fast ball that makes people call him a "right-handed Sandy Koufax."

Fortunately, Maloney already has learned a basic truth of sports—never take yourself too seriously. That can come in handy for a 23-year-old pitcher, who had a 23-7 record for Cincinnati last year, set a club strikeout high of 265 and tied the major league record by striking out eight in a row one night at Milwaukee.

"Last year I told the boys 15 games was my goal," Maloney said at Al Lopez Field. "I figured if I won 15 I would have a tremendous year. Well, I had 15 with two months to go so the boys began writing about 25. I had trouble keeping my mind on a little thing like winning No. 16."

So what is he shooting at this time?

"I'm going for 16," he said today.

John Howard, a slender 6-5 center, and Don Durr. Howard has been a mainstay for University since he was a sophomore.

Last year University was upset in its first district test by Ridgedale High School.

Williamsport's three all-county players are tick Fens-termaker, Larry Beard and Bruce Willis. Beard is the leading scorer, with a total of 88 points this season. Fenstermaker has totaled 340 markers.

This Deer trio gets plenty of support from Nick Williams, a junior who has totaled 225 points, and a pair of outstanding sophomores, Tom Hamman and Neil Coleman.

The Glenn Chester coached unit has 17-5 record for the season.

Akron Trips Wittenberg

Ohio Conference Title Goes to Zips

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The script was the same but the outcome different in the championship game of the Ohio Conference basketball tournament Tuesday night.

The Akron Zips edged the Wittenberg Tigers, 52-51, for their first victory in five years the two teams have met as finalists in the tournament, which was started in 1960.

Akron's triumph also gave it a berth in the NCAA Small College Regional Tournament here Friday and Saturday.

The defeat snapped a 10-game winning streak for the Tigers, who had not lost in 13 previous games with the Zips. They ended the season with an 18-5 record.

A standing-room only crowd of more than 4,000 watched the game in Akron University's Memorial Hall.

Akron was never headed after taking the lead in the first six minutes of play, but the score was tied seven times. Wittenberg fell eight points behind in the first half — Akron's biggest margin of the game—by going scoreless over a six - minute stretch. The Zips held a 26-22 advantage at halftime.

Outscored 18-15 from the field, the Zips won the game at the free throw line, making 22 of 25 foul shots while the Tigers made 15 of 19. Each team got 32 rebounds.

Wittenberg's Bob Cherry made a field goal and a free throw to tie the score for the last time, at 46-46, with 4:26 remaining, but a long shot by Billy Stevens less than a minute later put Akron ahead for keeps.

Akron will take a 20-6 record against Ithaca (N.Y.) College (16-2) in the semifinals of the NCAA regional Friday night. Youngstown (23-2) will meet Le-Moyne of Syracuse (16-5) in the opener.

The winner here will go to the national finals at Evansville, Ind., March 11-13.

Three Braves Earn All-SVC Honors

Logan Elm High School placed three players on the All-Scioto Valley Conference cage team, announced today by conference coaches.

Heading the list of Braves on the coaches' "dream unit" was Gary Hardman, one of four unanimous choices. He also was named honorary captain of the All-Star team.

Other players are Jeff Lutz, a six-foot junior, and Arnie Gabriel, a 5-8 senior.

Rounding out the team are Ken Disbennet, a 6-1 Laurelville senior; Don Crooks, 6-3, Mike Everhart 6-4 and Gerald Stevens, 5-10 all members of the Paint Valley High School conference champion team; Arvel Phipps 6-2 and Harry Rittenour 6-2 of Piketon and Mike Thompson 6-1 of Unioto.

ORVALL CRABTREE, fourth year mentor of title king Paint Valley, was named coach of the year. The Bearcats finished what Crabtree calls one of his "worst years" at Paint Valley. They had a 16-4 overall record.

However, it was the first year his team has not competed in the district tournament. Crabtree has twice taken them to the regionals at Athens.

For Logan Elm, Hardman and Lutz are returnees from last year's all - league unit. Both were named to the All-Pickaway County team named yesterday.

Hardman has been a varsity starter since he was a sophomore for Keith Merrin's Braves, twice playing in the southeast regional tournament at Athens. He is considered the team leader by his coach and is the second scorer on the team.

Lutz, a junior, is the leading scorer for the Braves as well as the leading rebounder. He was a varsity starter last year as was Gabriel.

Gabriel is a straight A student and is a member of the National Honor Society.

PIKETON'S Rittenour, a repeater from last year, stands first scholastically in a senior class of 95 students. The other member to repeat for the honors was Don Crooks of Paint Valley.

Receiving honorable mention on the team were John Young, Laurelville; Mike Haas, Paint Valley; Vandel Ward, Piketon; Mike Minton, Jim Eccard and Lionel Wisecup, all of Unioto.

Conference coaches selecting the squad and the coach of the year besides Crabtree and Merrin, are Ron Jones, Piketon; LeRoy Sylvani, Unioto; Bill Lane, Laurelville.

The players and the coach of the year will be honored at the All - Star Basketball assembly at Piketon High School Tuesday.

Snowfall Drives Indians Indoors

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—The weatherman crossed up the Cleveland Indians with a three-inch snowfall, but Manager Birdie Tebbetts found a way to keep his conditioning program going.

Tebbetts, bent on getting the Tribe into the best shape possible for the coming season, bought 50 pairs of sneakers Tuesday. He divided the players into two groups and ordered them to work out in two rented gyms until the balmy weather Arizona is noted for returns.

The snowfall was the first for the Indians since they started their pre-season drills here 17 years ago. It also was the first measurable snow in this city since 1958. Temperatures hovered in the mid-20s.

The New York Jets handed Kansas City's Chiefs their first American Football League shut-out, 17-0, the first time they met last fall.

Robertson Is Both Pixie, Pirate

NEW YORK (AP)—He has the face of a pixie and the approach of a pirate. And he just happens to be the most proficient pro the National Basketball Association has ever known.

"He's something like a good insurance policy," Cincinnati Coach Jack McMahon said today about backcourt star Oscar Robertson.

"It's like this," McMahon explained. "In this game, mistakes are bound to happen. But almost every time we make a mistake, Oscar comes up with the ball."

"And when he's got the ball, how much trouble can you be in?"

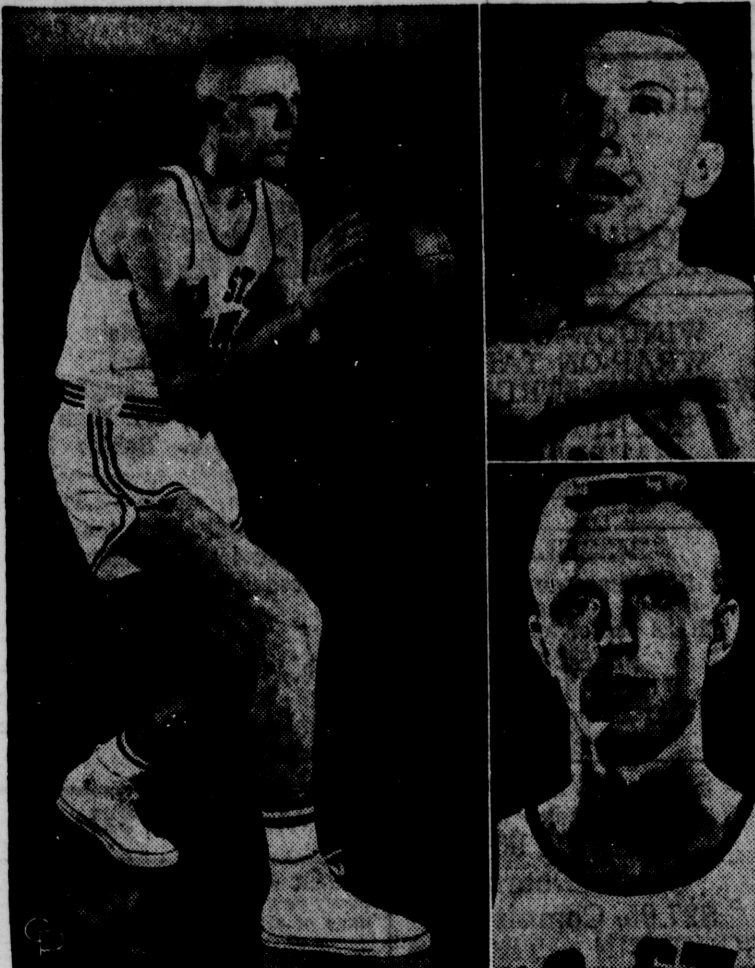

Robertson contributed 33 points, a dozen assists and was the team's second best rebounder Tuesday night when the Royals fought off New York 117-108 in Madison Square Garden, staying within 2½ games of perennial champion and current front-runner Boston.

The Celtics beat Philadelphia 106-94 in Syracuse in the only other game played Tuesday. Tom Heinsohn hit 23 points and Bill Russell grabbed 36 rebounds for the Celtics, who led all the way.

GARY BRADDIS

Braddis Leads All-America '5'

NEW YORK (AP) — Gary Braddis of Ohio State, Cotton Nash of Kentucky, Walt Hazzard of UCLA, Bill Bradley of Princeton and Dave Stallworth of Wichita were named today as the 1964 All-America college basketball team by The Associated Press.

Despite an abundance of good players that made picking difficult in this Olympic year, these five from the Big Ten, Southeastern Conference, Big Six, Ivy League and Missouri Valley easily led in the voting by 71 sport writers and broadcasters.

On the basis of five points for a first-team vote and two points for a second-team vote, Braddis collected a total of 1,199 points.

Badger Thinlies Favored in Test

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Wisconsin's talent-laden Badgers were installed as favorites today to win the Big Ten Conference indoor track-field championship here this weekend.

Michigan's Wolverines, bolstered by several stars from other countries, were billed as a close second, with the others far behind. Larry Snyder, Ohio State coach who bossed the U.S. cinder forces in the 1960 Olympics at Rome, said the remainder of the field could be Illinois, Purdue, Indiana, Michigan State, Ohio State, Minnesota, Northwestern and Iowa in that order.

A year ago Iowa and Michigan deadlocked for the laurels.

Clay Is Tagged Fighter of Month

NEW YORK (AP) — Cassius Clay, the Louisville bard who threw enough words to fill 10 magazines and enough blows to wrestle the heavyweight title from Sonny Liston, was named the Fighter of the Month for February by Ring magazine Wednesday.

Liston, a seventh-round technical knockout victim Feb. 25, was dropped to the leading challenger's spot by Ring in releasing its monthly ratings. In other heavyweight division changes, Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., and Eddie Machen of Los Angeles each moved up one place, to fourth and fifth respectively, and Britain's Henry Cooper, winner over countryman Brian London, replaced his victim in 10th place.

Williamsport Set For University

The Williamsport Deers move into the Pickaway County basketball spotlight tonight when they tangle with Columbus University at 6:30 in the State Fairgrounds Coliseum at Columbus.

They play the second of a four-game card. They are the sole Pickaway County representatives in the semifinals of the Class A Central District tournament.

Berne Union, the other winner of the Teays Valley sectional, will meet Pleasant Twp. at 9:30 p. m.

The evening's schedule begins at 5 p. m. when Marion Catholic meets Licking Valley. The third game finds Newark Catholic playing Centerburg.

THE DEERS, paced by three All-Pickaway County League players, will be facing one of the top ranked teams in the state.

The little Bucks have lost only to Mansfield Senior High School, a Class AA quintet.

They are paced by Ali - Ohio

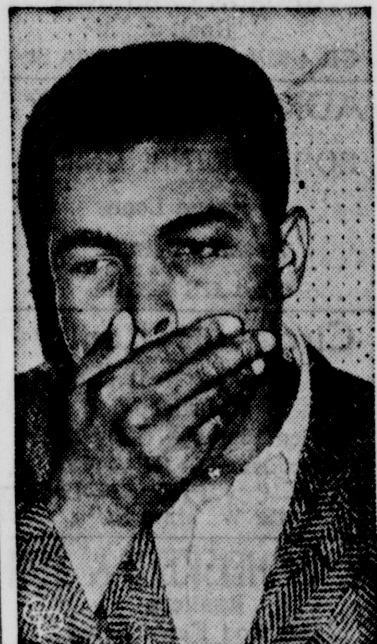

Jim Maloney Shows His Irish Wit

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Jim Maloney is a young Irishman from Fresno, Calif. with a refreshing sense of humor and a fast ball that makes people call him a "right-handed Sandy Koufax."

Fortunately, Maloney already has learned a basic truth of sports—never take yourself too seriously. That can come in handy for a 23-year-old pitcher, who had a 23-7 record for Cincinnati last year, set a club strikeout high of 265 and tied the major league record by striking out eight in a row one night at Milwaukee.

"Last year I told the boys 15 games was my goal," Maloney said at Al Lopez Field. "I figured if I won 15 I would have a tremendous year. Well, I had 15 with two months to go so the boys began writing about 25. I had trouble keeping my mind on a little thing like winning No. 16."

So what is he shooting at this time? "I'm going for 16," he said today.

LOOK WHO'S SILENT! — An unusual pose for him: struck momentarily by talkative Cassius Clay, new heavyweight ring king, as he pauses during a press conference in Miami Beach, Fla.

Akron Trips Wittenberg

Ohio Conference Title Goes to Zips

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The script was the same but the outcome different in the championship game of the Ohio Conference basketball tournament Tuesday night.

The Akron Zips edged the Wittenberg Tigers, 52-51, for their first victory in five years the two teams have met as finalists in the tournament, which was started in 1960.

Akron's triumph also gave it a berth in the NCAA Small College Regional Tournament here Friday and Saturday.

The defeat snapped a 10-game winning streak for the Tigers, who had not lost in 13 previous games with the Zips. They ended the season with an 18-5 record.

A standing-room only crowd of more than 4,000 watched the game in Akron University's Memorial Hall.

Akron was never headed after taking the lead in the first six minutes of play, but the score was tied seven times. Wittenberg fell eight points behind in the first half — Akron's biggest margin of the game — by going scoreless over a six-minute stretch. The Zips held a 26-22 advantage at halftime.

Outscored 18-15 from the field, the Zips won the game at the free throw line, making 22 of 25 foul shots while the Tigers made 15 of 19. Each team got 32 rebounds.

Wittenberg's Bob Cherry made a field goal and a free throw to tie the score for the last time, at 46-46, with 4:26 remaining, but a long shot by Billy Stevens less than a minute later put Akron ahead for keeps.

Akron will take a 20-6 record against Ithaca (N.Y.) College (16-2) in the semifinals of the NCAA regional Friday night. Youngstown (23-2) will meet LeMoyne of Syracuse (16-5) in the opener.

The winner here will go to the national finals at Evansville, Ind., March 11-13.

Three Braves Earn All-SVC Honors

Logan Elm High School placed three players on the All-Scioto Valley Conference cage team, announced today by conference coaches.

Heading the list of Braves on the coaches' "dream unit" was Gary Hardman, one of four unanimous choices. He also was named honorary captain of the All-Star team.

Other players are Jeff Lutz, a six-foot junior, and Arnie Gabriel, a 5-8 senior.

Rounding out the team are Ken Disbennet, a 6-1 Laurelville senior; Don Crooks, 6-3, Mike Everhart 6-4 and Gerald Stevens, 5-10 all members of the Paint Valley High School conference champion team; Arvel Phipps 6-2 and Harry Rittenour 6-2 of Piketon and Mike Thompson 6-1 of Unioto.

ORVALL CRABTREE, fourth year mentor of title king Paint Valley, was named coach of the year. The Bearcats finished what Crabtree calls one of his "worst years" at Paint Valley. They had a 16-4 overall record. However, it was the first year his team has not competed in the district tournament. Crabtree has twice taken them to the regionals at Athens.

For Logan Elm, Hardman and Lutz are returnees from last year's all-league unit. Both were named to the All-Pickaway County team named yesterday.

Hardman has been a varsity starter since he was a sophomore for Keith Merrin's Braves, twice playing in the southeast regional tournament at Athens. He is considered the team leader by his coach and is the second scorer on the team.

Lutz, a junior, is the leading scorer for the Braves as well as the leading rebounder. He was a varsity starter last year as was Gabriel.

Gabriel is a straight A student and is a member of the National Honor Society.

PIKETON'S Rittenour, a repeater from last year, stands first scholastically in a senior class of 95 students. The other member to repeat for the honors was Don Crooks of Paint Valley.

Receiving honorable mention on the team were John Young, Laurelville; Mike Haas, Paint Valley; Vandel Ward, Piketon; Mike Minton, Jim Eccard and Lionel Wiscup, all of Unioto. Conference coaches selecting the squad and the coach of the year besides Crabtree and Merrin, are Ron Jones, Piketon; LeRoy Sylvani, Unioto; Bill Lane, Laurelville.

The players and the coach of the year will be honored at the All-Star Basketball assembly at Piketon High School Tuesday.

Texas A&M Wins Berth In NCAA

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

They still had the center jump after each basket in college basketball when Texas A&M last won the undisputed championship of the Southwest Conference.

The Aggies sewed up the SWC title for the first time in 41 years with a 70-66 double overtime victory over Texas Christian Tuesday night and earned an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament for the national collegiate championship.

It was a fitting climax to Shelby Metcalf's first year as Aggie head coach and he hopes for an easier time against Texas Western next Monday at Dallas in the NCAA competition.

The Aggies' victory overshadowed little Rider College's upset 66-63 triumph over the unpredictable NYU Violets and San Francisco's 60-47 defeat of Santa Clara for the Dons' 16th straight success.

In games involving teams in The Associated Press Top Ten Villanova, No. 7, walloped Seton Hall 109-73 and Chicago Loyola, No. 9 trampled Ohio University 103-87.

Texas Tech beat Rice 77-70 to take second place in the SWC while Providence beat Utah State 85-75, Georgia defeated Florida State 85-70 and Missouri whipped Iowa State 74-60 in other games.

Six free throws in the second overtime gave the Texas Aggies their victory over TCU at Fort Worth. The regulation game ended 62-62 and neither team scored in the first extra period.

The NCAA tournament picture now is as follows:

Eastern regionals at Philadelphia Monday: Temple vs. Connecticut or Rhode Island, Villanova vs. Providence, Virginia Military vs. Princeton, Penn or Yale. Duke drew first round bye.

Midwest regional at Evanston, Ill. Tuesday: Louisville vs. Ohio Univ. or Miami of Ohio, Chicago Loyola vs. Murray, Ky. Kentucky and Michigan or Ohio State drew first round byes.

Far West regional at Eugene, Ore. Tuesday: Utah State vs. Arizona State or New Mexico, Oregon State vs. Seattle, UCLA and San Francisco drew first round byes.

Davidson's request to compete in the NIT at New York, starting March 12, was turned down by the Southern Conference, leaving four berths open in the 12-team field. Already entered are DePaul, Pitt, NYU, Duquesne, St. Bonaventure, Miami, Fla. Army and St. Joseph's, Pa.

The Houston Colt .45s won 13 of 18 extra inning games during 1963, their second year in the National League.

Favored Dayton Belmont Takes Step toward Title

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dayton Belmont's favored Bison, state Class AA high school cage crown Tuesday night with a 61-50 victory over Dayton Roth.

That gave the Gem City powerhouse a 21-1 record, a victory away from a Cincinnati regional berth.

Athens, fifth in the final ratings, saw its 21-game winning streak wrecked, 68-64, by Portsmouth's Trojans, the 1961 Class AA state kings.

But six of the Top Ten are still on deck, although the 513-team Class AA contingent has been whittled to 65. Portsmouth was rated eighth by the sports editors, so Athens bowed to another of the elite list as the Trojans hiked their record to 17-3.

Chillicothe (14-8) turned in a 59-58 upset over Chesapeake—which was 19-2 going into the fray—to earn an Athens district finals spot opposite Portsmouth.

None of the Class A Top Ten saw action Tuesday night, but nine of the favored list are still firing although only 58 of the starting field of 397 remain in play.

Worthington, which belted Class AA champion Columbus East out of the running last week, was ousted, 65-55, by Columbus South Tuesday night in the central district. Newark's Wildcats, champions in 1936, 1938 and 1943, defeated Columbus Linden 60-58, in the same meet and took on the role of favorite for a regional berth. The 'Cats have a 19-3 record.

Canton McKinley and Massillon, the No. 2 and 3 teams, tangled Thursday at Canton; fourth-ranked and unbeaten Cleveland Rhodes plays Cleveland John Marshall at Berea tonight, and 10th-rated Cleveland East Tech goes against Cleveland St. Ignatus Thursday.

In Class A, top-rated Zanesville.

Midwest regional at Evanston, Ill. Tuesday: Louisville vs. Ohio Univ. or Miami of Ohio, Chicago Loyola vs. Murray, Ky. Kentucky and Michigan or Ohio State drew first round byes.

Far West regional at Eugene, Ore. Tuesday: Utah State vs. Arizona State or New Mexico, Oregon State vs. Seattle, UCLA and San Francisco drew first round byes.

Browns Acquire Giants Tackle

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Plain Dealer said Wednesday it had learned that the Cleveland Browns have obtained Dick Modzelewski, veteran defensive tackle, from the New York Giants in exchange for Bobby Crespi, an offensive end from Mississippi.

Modzelewski, who weighs 265 pounds, is 32 years old but still is considered one of the top defensive linemen in the National Football League. He is part owner of a Cleveland restaurant and makes his home here. He played collegiate football at Maryland.

Crespi was the Browns' first draft choice three years ago, but has seen little action since he joined the team. He alternated with John Brewer, another former Mississippi star, last season.

Favored Dayton Belmont Takes Step toward Title

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Dayton Belmont's favored Bison, state Class AA high school cage crown Tuesday night with a 61-50 victory over Dayton Roth.

That gave the Gem City powerhouse a 21-1 record, a victory away from a Cincinnati regional berth.

Athens, fifth in the final ratings, saw its 21-game winning streak wrecked, 68-64, by Portsmouth's Trojans, the 1961 Class AA state kings.

But six of the Top Ten are still on deck, although the 513-team Class AA contingent has been whittled to 65. Portsmouth was rated eighth by the sports editors, so Athens bowed to another of the elite list as the Trojans hiked their record to 17-3.

Chillicothe (14-8) turned in a 59-58 upset over Chesapeake—which was 19-2 going into the fray—to earn an Athens district finals spot opposite Portsmouth. None of the Class A Top Ten saw action Tuesday night, but nine of the favored list are still firing although only 58 of the starting field of 397 remain in play.

Worthington, which belted Class AA champion Columbus East out of the running last week, was ousted, 65-55, by Columbus South Tuesday night in the central district. Newark's Wildcats, champions in 1936, 1938 and 1943, defeated Columbus Linden 60-58, in the same meet and took on the role of favorite for a regional berth. The 'Cats have a 19-3 record.

Canton McKinley and Massillon, the No. 2 and 3 teams, tangle Thursday at Canton; fourth-ranked and unbeaten Cleveland Rhodes plays Cleveland John Marshall at Berea tonight, and 10th-rated Cleveland East Tech goes against Cleveland St. Ignatius Thursday.

In Class A, top-rated Zanesville Rosecrans suspended three of its team for disciplinary reasons Tuesday and could see its 21-0 record marred Thursday by defending champion Dresden Jefferson in the Marietta meeting. Dresden has a 19-2 mark.

Biggest Rosecrans loss was 6-foot-5 senior Tom Riehl, who had an 18-point average. The school said the suspensions were for the remainder of the year.

Second-ranked Celina ICHS sees action Friday. Third-place Racine (21-0) goes against New Lexington St. Aloisius (21-1) tonight at Athens, and fifth-rated Southeastern of Ross County (23-0) meets New Boston (15-4) in the other semifinal.

Beverly Fort Frye, fourth with a 22-0 mark, goes against Skyvue (20-0) Thursday at Marietta; Brilliant, No. 6 with 21-1, meets Springfield Local at Steubenville Thursday; eighth rated Strasburg has a date with Byesville tonight at Dover; Fort Loramie, ninth, plays Bellbrook tonight at Springfield, and 10th-place Columbus University (20-1) meets Williamsport tonight at Columbus.

Bill Bradburn, a member of Army's rifle team, two years ago equaled the U. S. Military Academy record with a 295 score. The mark was set by Gordon Rogers in 1959.

Browns Acquire Giants Tackle

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Plain Dealer said Wednesday it had learned that the Cleveland Browns have obtained Dick Modzelewski, veteran defensive tackle, from the New York Giants in exchange for Bobby Crespi, an offensive end from Mississippi.

Modzelewski, who weighs 285 pounds, is 32 years old but still is considered one of the top defensive linemen in the National Football League. He is part owner of a Cleveland restaurant and makes his home here. He played collegiate football at Maryland.

Crespi was the Browns' first draft choice three years ago, but has seen little action since he joined the team. He alternated with John Brewer, another former Mississippi star, last season.

A communication forwarded to the clerk's desk noted that a State Department of Liquor Control Board hearing on a license request here will be held starting 1 p. m. Mar. 30 in offices at 33 N. Third St., Columbus. The application for a permit was made earlier by Glen Stumbo for a store at Logan and Washington St.

A spokesman, representing residents of the area opposed to issuance of the permit, requested Council to have a delegate at the hearing. At their last session, the solons adopted a resolution in opposition to granting the license. It was pointed out that the final decision will be made at the state board's hearing.

A brief review of proposed improvements on Route 56 (E. Main St. to the city limits) was conducted. An engineer survey letter directed to Service Director Harlow Arledge indicated that Circleville would be required to pay for the planned additional six feet width of the street. The state would stand the remaining cost. The city's total share has been estimated at about $8,400.

Frank Barnhill, First Ward solon, commented on the need for extension and improvement work along Atwater Ave., north of Wilson Ave. Mayor Gordon offered a similar view, denoting that the street eventually will extend to Walnut Creek Pike and provide the city a necessary road artery. The proposal, along with curb plans for Cedar Heights Road, was referred to the service committee for study.

Councilman David Crawford presented views on the merits of purchasing a warehouse and about 12 acres of land at the old Winorr Canning Co. site adjacent to S. Washington St. He said the building has good potential as future headquarters for the City Service Department, and that the surrounding acreage might provide multiple uses.

MAYOR GORDON also has taken the possible purchase under study. Council authorized clerk Shadley to contact the company in Columbus handling sale of the property for further information.

Joe Bell of the service committee requested and was granted a meeting next Tuesday for the purpose of discussing a street repair program for 1964. The solons will visit the Winorr site for an inspection prior to the 7 p. m. session.

Tom Seeley

here at the beginning of Tom's junior year. Seeley is the 17th winner of the annual award, succeeding Rick Pond of Williamsport who earned the trophy last year. He is the second Monroe eager to be accorded the honor. Lester Saunders was tabbed the county's top player in 1951.

Bob Bowsher, in whose honor the trophy is awarded, was an outstanding athlete at Circleville High School immediately prior to World War II.

AT CHS, he lettered in football, basketball, track and boxing. He was described by his coaches as the type of player who makes a team click. It was this attribute, more than individual excellence, for which he was most praised.

After his graduation in 1940, he enrolled at Tusculum College in Tennessee where he played varsity football in his freshman year. The following year he enlisted in the United States Army.

He was wounded in action on July 12, 1944, in the European theater of war. He died two days later.

The award was first inaugurated in 1948 by The Herald in his honor. The first winner was Jim Pickelseimer, an outstanding Williamsport high school athlete.

Politics: Barry, Rocky Woo New Hampshire Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Sen. Barry Goldwater today concentrated their fire on the Johnson administration as they stumped for votes in next Tuesday's New Hampshire Republican presidential primary.

Rockefeller, hammering hard on economic issues, returned to the Granite State to open his final drive after accusing the administration of "vacillating and contradictory" foreign policy in a statement issued in Washington Tuesday.

Goldwater swept into the third day of his windup drive with a pledge to end what he called "wheeling and dealing" government in Washington.

While Rockefeller and Goldwater battled it out in New Hampshire, Republicans in Louisiana made political history by polling nearly 40 per cent of the votes in Tuesday's election for governor.

Democrat John J. McKeithen was elected, but Republican Charlton H. Lyons Sr. polled 200,000 more votes than the GOP received in the state's last governor's election in 1960.

As he opened a drive that will last until voting starts in New Hampshire Tuesday, Rockefeller said the Johnson administration did not believe in the free enterprise system.

He issued a statement at Concord in which he said New Hampshire would need 50,000 jobs over the next five years—and the nation 20 million. They can only be provided, he said, by an administration that would "encourage the growth of free enterprise."

Goldwater, speaking to about 400 in Nashua Tuesday night, said he was seeking the nomination because he sees no other candidate who will champion "a rebirth of principle, individual worth and dignity" as opposed to what he said is threatened governmental control of the American way of life.

In what sounded to many like a campaign speech, Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton told the Economic Club in New York City Tuesday night that the Democratic party has a "built-in deadlock" and is hamstrung by its reactionaries.

Scranton said the Democrats were largely to blame for what he called "failures that dot the national landscape." The governor says he is not a candidate for the GOP presidential nomination but would accept a draft.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon called for a selective embargo against foreign firms that deal with Cuba by denying them a market in the United States. He told a luncheon of the New York Building Congress Tuesday that an oil blockade might "possibly be the next step" but added he did not feel this was necessary now.

In California, State Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk was expected to announce that he would not run for the U.S. Senate. Gov. Edmund G. Brown had urged Mosk to keep out of the race.

State Controller Alan Cranston, backed by Brown and the powerful California Democratic Council, is running against ailing Sen. Clair Engle, a Democrat who underwent brain surgery last summer.

Business Briefs

Forty huge boxcars, each 86½ feet long inside with 10,000 cubic feet capacity, will be purchased by the Norfolk and Western Railway, president Herman H. Pevler announced today. A standard boxcar is 40½ feet long.

The 70-ton, "high cube" cars will cost more than $1.4 million, including special installations. They will be used in the transport of low density materials, principally automotive parts from factories to assembly plants.

Hootenanny Due At Amanda School

The Amanda - Clearcreek Band Boosters will sponsor a Hootenanny 8 p. m. Friday in the high school gym.

The show will be presented by experienced folk singers, as well as local talent. Refreshments will be sold. Tickets will be available at the door.
